

Three Flags Chapter Birthday Luncheon to Be Held Tuesday

The members of Three Flags Chapter, D.A.R. of Lathrup Township, will hold their annual birthday luncheon in the Founders Room of the Book-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit next Tuesday at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Conrad T. Bloom, the regent, will preside over the meeting, to which the regents of neighboring chapters have been invited. Mrs. Henry Baume, who played a big part in the organization of the chapter eight years ago, will be present and give a short talk. A feature of the meeting will be the ingathering of aprons and other articles for the gift shop which is replacing the annual Country Fair. Mrs. Harold Hill, social chairman had charge of the luncheon arrangements. The meeting at which the plans for this annual birthday party were completed were held Tuesday when Mrs. Richard Large was the luncheon hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Wynan Adams. A new refrigerator accessory is an odor-proof, plastic egg container. It's designed to hold a dozen eggs upright and keep breakage at a minimum.

GIRL SCOUTS

Pierce School
If it's a buzzing you have in your ears, it can quite likely be traced to Pierce School, for the sound of ambitious Brownie activities is reaching far and wide. It's Troop 33, under the leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Gaff, and a newly formed troop under Mrs. Richard Mangle's direction, who are busy with a unique program to be given by the 26 Brownies of these troops on Dec. 17. The girls and their leaders will go to the Oakland County Juvenile Home at Pontiac and present their Christmas performance for the children there. The Brownies have drawn pictures of three Christmas stories, have pasted these pictures together, or fastened them on a reel and will run them very slowly through their projection room in Orange Creek Theatre. Brownie Mary Louise Smith will be the narrator. The plays which they have made into pictures are "Way the Chinese Rang," "The First Christmas," and "A Christmas Story from Comic Land." After their successful premiere here, Pierce School Brownies anticipate a repeat performance in Birmingham for all Brownies of the city. Announcement of this date will be made next week.
