New Pythian Slating Is Named; Planning Public Installation

The annual election of officers for Birmingham Temple of Pythian Sisters was held at their regular meeting Dec. 2, held in the Community House. Gladys Madaras was elected most excellent chief, and will be assisted by the following officers:

Past Chief, Florence Brown; excellent senior, Pearl Edgar; excellent junior, Elva Lowell; manager of the Temple, Edith Thompson; M. of R. and C. Della Wright; M. of F. Anna Smith; protector, Naomi Clark; guard, Fern Simms; pianist, Violet Meyer; trustee, Irah Matic; degree staff captain, Hazel Lawler; installing officer, Stella Edgar; Grand Temple delegate, Hattie Davenport; alternate, Stella Edgar; delegate to district convention, Ann Tobin; alternate, Ruby Griffin; and press correspondent, Stella Edgar.

The installation ceremonies will be held in the Community House on Jan. 9. Plans are being made for a public installation, to which everyone is invited.

Dr. John P. Wood Going to Chicago for Board Meeting

Dr. John P. Wood, 1131 Lyonhurst, immediate past president of the American Osteopathic Association and a member of its Board of Trustees, plans to attend a four-day meeting of the trustees at the Palmer House in Chicago on December 13.

Public health matters, projected plans for the expansion of osteopathic colleges and association business affairs will be discussed.

McCleary-Boulton Nuptials Noted

Miss Heather Vivien Boulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Boulton, became the bride of Edward Raymond McCleary of Denver, Colo., on Wednesday, Nov. 26. The ceremony was performed in Christ Church Cranbrook by Dr. Charles Cadigan.

The bride was gowned in candlelight satin made with a tight bodice and full skirt. She carried a satin covered prayer book on which was a brown armband, surrounded by white carnations, and streamers with the carteron trim. She was attended by Miss Iola Van der Hevel of Holland, as maid of honor and Miss Mildred McCleary, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McCleary of Forty Fort, Pa., had Datus C. Brown of Detroit as his best man, Richard Schmidt of Indian Village and John B. Boulton, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at Maymont.

After a wedding trip to Chicago and Denver, the couple will make their home in Pueblo, Colo.

Alpha Phi Chapter Pledges Support in Rheumatic Fever War

Mrs. Walter Fry has been named chairman of the local Fever Control Clinic committee, which is sponsored by the Alpha Phi sorority. She has asked that anyone interested in having a speaker appear before the local branch contact her or the president, Mrs. Hoyt Metzger.

At the last meeting, held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Emmett, Dr. Donald S. Smith of Pontiac spoke of the work the newly formed clinic can do toward the control of rheumatic fever. Dr. Smith pointed out that it is essential that the layman be fully informed about this crippling disease, in order that they may aid in checking its progress.

Alpha Phi has made this a national project, with the Birmingham branch anxious to do its part to correct conditions as they may exist here. A clinic is held at the Pontiac General Hospital on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, from 9 a. m. to noon, when persons may receive a thorough check.

Mrs. Thomas Stolberg and Mrs. C. C. Hoover were Mrs. Emmett's assistant hostesses when the North suburban branch met at her home.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 16 held an Investiture Ceremony on December 10. Patricia Barkley was invested. Mrs. F. G. Davis told the Brownie Story and conducted the ceremony. During the two meetings before the holiday the girls will make Christmas gifts. With the beginning of the new year they are planning to make a doll house, complete with furniture and all the trimmings, to be donated to the children's ward of a nearby hospital.

The sixth grade girls of Troop 22, Adams School, were working on their Games Badge. Jean Masterson and Ann Pariso earned their World Knowledge Badge when they presented an exhibit of authentic Scotch articles; bonnets, family tartans, leather embroidery and cookies made from an old Scotch recipe. The latter served double duty as they were also a "treat" for all the girls in the troop.

Troop 14 recently held a fashion show for the mothers, followed by refreshments of punch and cake. Molly Martin and Jean Duncan were the announcers and all the girls took part, modeling clothes for afternoon, evening and sports wear. At their last meeting they worked on Christmas gifts.

Dr. R. W. Bullard Becomes Associated With Hines Hospital

Dr. Rockwood W. Bullard, Jr., a former resident of Birmingham and a graduate of Cranbrook School, has become surgical resident at Hines General Hospital in Chicago.

Dr. Bullard took a pre-medical course at Amherst College, and was graduated from the Harvard School of Medicine in 1942 with honors. He was surgical resident at the Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago when he entered the service in 1945.

Dr. Bullard, in a recent examination for a Michigan license, placed first among the 200 Michigan men and women who took the test. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bullard, who are now residing at Saint Clair.

Baptist Women Will Send CARE Packages

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Union of the First Baptist Church was held last Thursday, beginning with the White Cross work period at 10:30. A luncheon was served at 12:30, under the direction of Mrs. Edgar H. Straten. Mrs. Frank G. Goldberg, Mrs. Donald H. Goldsmith and Mrs. O. D. Hillman.

"Following My Guiding Star," was the program theme with Mrs. S. H. Knowlton as chairman. A Christmas play, following the theme of "Even Sent I You," was presented by Mrs. L. J. Bunyan, Mrs. J. C. Akersley, Mrs. H. E. Reid, Mrs. E. H. Cunningham, Mrs. V. L. Lockrow and Mrs. Merris Olsen. Mrs. Stewart Smith played for the meeting, with the decorations being in charge of Mrs. Herbert Fleming.

Mrs. George A. Jackson, president, conducted the business meeting. It was voted to send packages to Europe, through the relief organization CARE.
