Norma Haig to Wed Georgia Man

The engagement of Miss Norma Averil Haig to Robert Earl Morris was made Tuesday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman K. Haig, of West Bloomfield Hills. The announcement was made

Norma A. Haig

Tuesday at a dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club for members of the immediate family. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Morris, Daniel E. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Chicago and Hamilton Haig of New York.
Plans are being made for a June wedding.

Critical European Situation, Topic of Special Class

The Ruth Shain International Relations class will reopen at the Community House at 14 o'clock Tuesday morning, Jan. 6. A special series for the next four weeks has been planned. It is announced that anyone interested in learning more of the European situation may attend just this special listing, if they so desire.
Mrs. Shain said that the general topic would deal with the European Recovery Plan, and that the meetings would coincide with the congressional activities, which open that same day on the subject. Members will use this congressional material, as well as information gotten from other sources.

Date Named for Bade-Ray Rites

Marcia Jane Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Estabrook, has selected Saturday, Jan. 17, as the date of her forthcoming marriage to Francis A. Bade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Bade of Louisville, Ky. The ceremony will be held at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church, with the Rev. Glen Harris officiating.

Miss Ray has selected her sister, Dorothy, to be her maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Phyllis Chapel and Betty Ruth Middleton of Evanston, Ill. John Brady will act as best man, and the ushers will include Robert Allen of Detroit, Hudson White, Jr., of Grand Rapids, Joseph Sweet of Louisville and John Clipper of Detroit.
A reception will be held after the wedding, at the Birmingham Golf Club.

Stone-DuBois Nuptials Noted December 23

Miss Dorothy Mae DuBois became the bride of Edward Hartman Stone at a four o'clock nuptial ceremony Dec. 22, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elting DuBois of Kensington road. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hartman Stone of Denver, Colo.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white mousseline de soie, designed with a fitted bodice, high neckline, small collar and tiny buttons to the waist. The yoke, long sleeves and full sweeping skirt were banded with wide rose point lace. Her train was of white tulle, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.
Mrs. Virginia Echert, sister of the groom, was her only attendant. Her gown was made with a lace-trimmed white waist and a floor-length skirt of bright red. She carried a single poinsettia bloom with silver ribbon streamers.
Thomas Echert, brother-in-law of the groom, was his best man. The bride's nephew, three-year-old Gary DuBois, was ring bearer. Traditional wedding music was provided during the ceremony by the bride's brother, Jack DuBois, and sister-in-law, Mrs. S. Elting DuBois.
A reception was held in the DuBois home after the ceremony. Mrs. DuBois selected a gown of dahlia red, and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Stone chose a black gown, with which she wore a yellow carnation corsage.
After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stone will make their home in Denver, Colo.

MOMS Take Gifts to Wounded Vets

The members of the MOMS club made their annual Christmas visit to the veterans of the Marine and Dearborn hospitals last week, taking gifts of candy, cookies and cigarettes to the men there. Through the generosity of Birmingham people, the St. Elizabeth and St. Agnes Auxiliaries of St. James Church, they were able to present two radios to the men, and ear phones which may be placed under pillows, carrying the program to the man who wishes to listen without disturbing the rest of others.

Catholic Women Will Work on Cancer Pads

Mrs. Warren Sumner, president of the Holy Name Church unit of the National Catholic Council of Women, announces that a sewing meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Fredman, 304 Bryn Mawr on Thursday, Jan. 8, from 11:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. All ladies of the church are invited to attend.
The work will be on cancer pads, and will be under the direction of Mrs. John Gerard, chairman of the cancer pad unit of the Holy Name Church.
The pads, when finished, are taken to the Pontiac headquarters and are sent from there to points of need.
