Now the Blind Can Read by Ear

James Fika, blind University of Michigan sophomore of Turner, Mich., tries out the "electrical pencil." an experimental instrument of the properties of the properties of the properties of the printed line. As the light passes over each letter it is converted into Stund by the equipment in the case on the desk. The carpices Fika wears magnifies the sounds, which can be distinguished Psychological Services is conducting research on the "enecil."

Hoopskirts and sideburns belong to a legendary era now. External ways of life change constantly, but friendship remains ever the same. And just as friends wished each other a Happy New Year a hundred years, ago, so we on the eve of 1948 extend our warmest greetings to you.

We're Always Busy - -

Busy that is . . . trying to fill the needs of the many Birmingham motorists who patronize our station. We keep busy trying to please you when you come here for service. Yes, we're always busy, but not too busy to greet you with our best wishes for the New Year. 1947 was a fine year for us and we have our many friends to thank for it. We're looking forward to seeing you often in 1948 and you may rest assured that we will continue to do everything within our power to please you.
