Ergasterion Play to Open Friday

Two complete casts are now in action, under the direction of Carl G. Wonnberger and Bob Hoffman, preparing for Ergasterion's 13th Christmas show, "Three's a Crowd." Sharing the lead with Jim Watson of Fort Washington, N. Y., president of the Cranbrook dramatic group, is Langdon Crane of Bloomfield Hills, Double-cast in the supporting feminine roles are Mary Moore of Royal Oak and Cynthia Creighton of Birmingham.

Featured also are Imogene Powrie, Randy Garrison, Bob Roensch, Peter Northrup and Jean MacGregor, all of Birmingham; George Boehm, Malcolm Pennington and JoAnne Wonnberger of Bloomfield Hills.

"Three's a Crowd" is an extravaganza which involves the goings-on of a pair of ex-choodums of the prohibition era who invade the Hollywood movie colony. The action takes place in a house perched high on a cliff and concerns the efforts made by a Hollywood scribbler to get rid of his unwelcome guests. He finds a new sweetheart in the middle of his plight, the ward of one of the gangsters, and love triumphs—or almost.

The elaborate stage set is being erected by a crew of Cranbrook students.
