Soloists Featured by Junior Musicale

A program of piano and vocal music will feature the next meeting of the Junior Musicale which will be held at the home of Josephine and Roberta Connor at 482 Westwood drive.
Miss Elaine Smith, pianist, will play Hubert Bath's Cornish Rhapsody, Chopin's Nocturne, Opus XV, No. 1 and a Spanish Folk-song. Estana Cani, arranged by George Copeland. She has been a student of Mrs. Joseph Sanderson and has studied for two years at Michigan State College.
A group of Christmas carols will be sung by Milly Chapman.
After the musical program a short business meeting will be held. Refreshments and a social hour will conclude the afternoon affair.

Dramatic Reading to Feature Joint Meeting of AAUW

A joint meeting of the book clubs and members of the Birmingham Branch of the AAUW will be held next Wednesday at 1 o'clock in the Community House, Mrs. W. W. Squier of Royal Oak will give a dramatic book review, in costume, of "Marta of Muscovy." The same program will be continued when the evening group meets at 8 o'clock.

Spellers is a popular speaker with a background of dramatic experience and historical studies. She majored in history at Hunter College, and has served as president of the Royal Oak League of Women Voters, as well as manager-director of the Flint Players' Club. She recently gave a series of book reviews at the Royal Oak Public Library.

The gifts which are to be sent to hospitalized veterans will be turned in at this meeting. The committee in charge announces that books, toilet articles, candy, nuts, games, records, and other articles suitable for these men, will be turned over to the Red Cross for distribution. They are that members bring them, already in Christmas wrappings.

The luncheon and decorations committee is in charge of Mrs. George B. Finch. She will be assisted by Mrs. Ralph Beecher and the book group chairman, who are Mesdames H. D. McLesse, Alex Farris, Marilyn Smiley, Everett Shafer and E. M. McCaul. These members were guests at a tea held at the home of Mrs. Finch Tuesday, when plans were completed.
Mrs. Irene Mortensen is chairman of the meeting which the evening group will hold.

Royal Oak Couple Will Lecture Here December 15

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Overstreet will be presented in Birmingham for the first time on Monday evening, Dec. 15, in the Adams School gym. Although they are being brought here by the Adult

Town Hall and the New School for Social Research. With his wife he is the co-director of the Leadership School of Town Hall. He has written many books, including "Influencing Human Behavior,"

Education Committee of the P.T.A., the lecture is open to the public and tickets may be secured at all the elementary schools and the Wabek Pharmacy. The subject they have chosen is "The Home, as the place for psychological maturing."

The Overstreets present two different viewpoints of the same subject as he is a philosopher and she a psychologist. They continually interrupt each other with their different ideas thereby enlivening the subject and creating the impression of a discussion rather than a "lecture."

They have recently completed several series of lectures at the Rackham Building under the University of Michigan Extension Service. They have also conducted courses in Royal Oak, and for several industries, including employees of the Michigan Bell and the Detroit Edison companies.

Pioneer Worker
Dr. Overstreet is a pioneer and consistent worker in the field of adult education, and was for many years head of the Department of Philosophy and Psychology at the College of the City of New York. He has also served as research associate and president of the American Association of Adult Education, member of the Educational Policies Committee of Town Hall, and member of the teaching staff of

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Overstreet "About Ourselves," and "The Enduring Quest."
Mrs. Overstreet's chief interest is adult education. In this field she has served as teacher and educational director of the School of Related Arts and Sciences and has worked with her husband on all the aforementioned committees. She has traveled many times from one end of America to the other and has made an extensive study of human behavior.

Her deepest concern is with the ordinary lives of the common people, particularly the individual in this postwar period. Mrs. Overstreet's latest book is entitled "Freedom's People."

Charles Elmer is selling tickets at Piers School, Mrs. Robert Perry, Quartet; Mrs. William Hufferan, Holy Name and Mrs. Harold Chalk at Adams and Barnum.
Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley is the general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy, Mrs. Blair Swartz, Mrs. Walter Patton, Mrs. W. C. Layman, Mrs. Richard Sneed, Mrs. Harold Chalk and Mrs. Robert Yingling.

Christmas Program of DAR Will Be Held at Allen Home Tuesday

Mrs. Harry Allen will open her home on West Maple road Tuesday, Dec. 9, for the regular meeting of Piety Hill Chapter, DAR.
Marion Jewell, local vocalist, will present a program of special Christmas music, with Alice Berndt as her accompanist. Among her selections will be "Come, Mary, Take Comfort," by Wolf; "A Slumber of the Madonna," by Head; "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," by MacGinney.

Another feature of the program will be the reading of "The Gift," by Mrs. Paul Carter. This Christmas story was written by Mrs. Carter's father, the Rev. David deForest Burrell of Bethlehem, Pa.

Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, regiment, announces that the Christmas boxes will be packed for shipment to the Dearborn Veteran Hospital at this time. The work will be done by a committee which is headed by Mrs. Clark Coulton.

Mrs. Allen's assistant hostesses will be Mesdames H. A. Manley, E. M. Broocks, F. C. Pew, W. J. Taylor, Irene Thompson Tjard and C. W. Wacker.
