Released From Bondage

The spirit of the Great Emancipator is infused in the men of medicine and science who seek to release mankind from the bondage of disease. Link by link they have broken the shackles—freed men of the tyranny of plagues that once decimated continents. Other ills are yielding to their constant efforts, and as soon as their latest discoveries are proved effective, we make the drugs available to your physician for use in his daily practice.

Lecture on South American Customs at Public Library

A recent returnee from South America who was at one time a resident of that continent, Mrs. F. G. Garrison of Birmingham, will give an informal talk on her experiences there in the auditorium of the Baldwin Public Library next Thursday, Feb. 20, at 8:30 p.m.

In conjunction with her lecture, a collection of native South American cap textiles, small ornaments and articles of every day use will be exhibited at the library this week, the exhibit to close on the lecture night.

Basis of Comparison

Her recent visit there covered several countries, and Mrs. Garrison plans to talk particularly on Brazil, Chile and Argentina. Having lived there before the war, she has the basis of comparison for the changes wrought about in the last few years.

At the talk to be given next Thursday, Mrs. Alan G. Looftbourne of Fairfax avenue and Mrs. Philip H. Frost of Wing Lake will act as usher, dressed in authentic Guatemalan and Peruvian costumes.

This lecture will be open to any resident interested in the South American countries. After the lecture, Mrs. Garrison will exhibit pictures taken during her stay there.

Barnum Students Prepare for a Swimming Meet

Interest runs high in the Barnum High School gym classes as the students prepare for the swimming meet to be held again this year under the sponsorship of the Barnum Parent-Teachers Association. The meet will be held Thursday evening, February 20, at the school swimming pool.

Gym instructors Vera Hanke and Fred Gibson are busy instructing and checking the time of the students, who have already begun to race against each other trying to increase their speed for Thursday's meet.

The program has been planned around the following racing events: 25-yard free style, 25-yard breast stroke, 25-yard back stroke, 100-yard free style relay, and the 75-yard stroke, (for members of the 9th grade only), for girls; and the 25-yard breast stroke, 25-yard back crawl, 75-yard medley and the 100-yard free style for boys.

Eugene Hubbard, swimming chairman of the PTA, has announced that since the number of
