White-Snyder Troth Revealed

From Grand Rapids comes the news of the betrothal of Ruth Evelyn Snyder, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Snyder, to Glenn E. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White of Charing Cross road.

News of the engagement was told to guests attending a Valentine tea Saturday at the home of the bride-elect's parents by valentines which were miniature copies of "Rumors Are Flying." The valentines were presented by five-year-old Jimy Nowlin of Ann Arbor, while Ruth's friends assisting at the tea were dressed in Valentine costumes.

Glenn will receive his master's degree in business administration at the University of Michigan where he is affiliated with Sigma Chi and Delta Sigma Pi fraternities. The bride-elect is a graduate of Greenville college and has been a postgraduate student at the University of Michigan. She is now teaching at Ann Arbor.

The couple plan a spring wedding.

Betrothed

Dorothy G. Cash

Mrs. Clarence Parmley of Bennaville avenue announces the engagement of her niece, Dorothy Gray Cash, to Daniel Herron, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Herron of Chapin street.

Dorothy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd M. Cash of Steens, Miss., but she is now making her home with Mrs. Clarence Parmley. She is a graduate of New Hope High School of Columbus, Miss. Her fiance served 19 months sea duty with the U. S. Navy.

The wedding date has been set for next April 4.

Speak Vows at Candlelight Ceremony Saturday, Feb. 1

St. James Church was the scene of the double ring ceremony which united Mary Virginia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Filkins of Chestnut street, and Dale Gladden Ballard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ballard, also of Birmingham, in marriage February 1.

White altar flowers decorated the candlelit church as the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father in blue chiffon gown, with a jewel neckline and long full sleeves. Her Juliet cap was beaded with blue pearls, and from it fell a shoulder-length veil. Tea roses and sweet peas made up the bridal bouquet.

Miss Gary Stine, matron-of-honor and only attendant, wore a pink nylon net gown fashioned with a satin bodice. A crown of pink and blue flowers was her headdress and she carried a bouquet of blue-dyed carnations.

Aubrey Ballard was his brother's best man and Jack Brown and Jack Filkins, both of Birmingham, served as ushers.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Filkins, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, in their home on Grey Court.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Filkins chose a light blue suit with a fuchsia hat and a corsage of white carnations, while Mrs. Ballard's dress was of black crepe, her accessories were also black, and her corsage also of the white carnations.

For her going-away suit the new Mrs. Ballard chose a fuchsia dress with a jewel neckline. She wore black accessories, except for her white gloves, and her flowers were gardenias.

The couple plan to live at 730 Wallace, while Mr. Ballard is studying at Highland Park Junior College, and then later plan to make their home in Chicago, while he completes his studies there.

Village Parents' Club Has Supper

A supper was given last night in the school gymnasium of the Bloomfield Village School by the board members of the Bloomfield Village Parents' Club.

Mrs. A. A. Appleford, who was in charge of appointing the committees, asked Mrs. H. G. Gassaway to handle invitations and reservations. Mrs. Paul N. Averill was in charge of the serving committee, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Shenefield.

In charge of the kitchen was Mrs. Hugh Menard, Mrs. E. T. Sheehan and Mrs. Philip Carlin, while Mrs. Howard Green, president of the club, and Mrs. John Slater, Mrs. Mark Kraus, Mrs. S. W. Nunnely, Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger, Mrs. Ward Tollxien, Mrs. Wayne Andreae, Mrs. H. D. Andreae, Mrs. A. A. Appleford, Mrs. E. H. Haugen, Mrs. John Ossler, Mrs. James Gilchrist, Mrs. Milton Fegley, Mrs. H. G. Gassaway and Mrs. W. R. Brand prepared the supper.

Suburban Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta Formed by Alumnae

A newly formed suburban branch of the Gamma Phi Beta adumnae, including alumnae from Pleasant Ridge, Huntington Woods, Royal Oak, Franklin, Pontiac, Birmingham and Bloomfield, has been organized with a triple objective in mind.

Sociability is the first aim, talent scouting for rushees among suburban girls now attending college, the second, and charity functions, the third.

The group recently sent a money gift to the active chapter of the sorority at Michigan State College at Lansing and are now busy sending recommendations to the University of Michigan for the rushing season there.

Officers of the new chapter from Birmingham are president, Mrs. Stanley Saunders; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Burson F. Horn; and adviser, Mrs. W. A. P. John.

The February meeting will be held on Thursday, February 27, at the home of Mrs. John L. Shepard of Beverly Hills.
