WALNUT LAKE SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dear Pam:
All the planning and organizing which the parents and kids have been working on for the last three weeks will come to a climax with the grand opening of the "Junior Big Club," to be held February 14. It will be open from then on every Friday night, eight to eleven p. m. Dancing, dancing instructions, loads of games and of course food will all be part of the big deal.

Norm Wilson is president, Barb Wilson, vice-president; Lee Hanson, treasurer, and Betty Kempton, secretary. Mrs. Walter Carey, Mrs. Muriel Shepard and Mr. Maynard Thomas are faculty advisers.

All of their friends were sorry to see the Thomas Moore family out to Pittsburgh last Thursday at Sharon and Wendy, who attended Walnut Lake School, left many ails behind them: The Moore family lived here for ten years. Mrs. Moore was the Brownie leader here at the Lake.

The upper room will have their Valentine box and party Friday afternoon as will the other rooms. Officers for the upper room were chosen again this six weeks. They are Jack Wallace, president; Bruce Wallace, vice-president and secretary, and Beverly Lewis, treasurer.

Mrs. Sawyer's room put on an exhibit on objects made in Mexico. Among the articles were straw hats, combs and handmade jewelry.

Mrs. Marjorie Soule is chairman of a turkey dinner project to be held in her recreation room March 1 from five to eight p. m. The proceeds will go to buy a stove for the school kitchen.

Maple Reserves Eke Out Win Over Ferndale, 32-31

By Gerry Hughes

Spurred on continuously by an overpowering will to win, Coach Lloyd Cooper's reserve quintet edged out the Ferndale hoopers, 32-31, in last Friday night's battle at Ferndale.

Opening with a fast-scoring onslaught, the Maple seconds' dash a staggering blow, leading Ferndale 11-2 at the first quarter.

As the game progressed the Maple margin became slimmer and slimmer as the purple and gold quintet narrowed the count to a two-point lead at the end of the first quarter.

With four tense minutes left in the game, Jim Anderson, guard, dropped in a free throw to give the Maroons a three-point lead. Ferndale's Dunn followed with final desperate field goal, but the Maples held onto their slim one-point lead.

Birmingham then put on a beautiful stall and held the ball to the final gun.

Jim Anderson and Pat Will did the scoring for the Maples while Walt Boddy and Duke Layland played fine defensive ball.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Hi, kids:
Before Annie gets started on the usual "doings," she wants to tell you about the new "Club 202." Yes, now they've even got clubs in homes. This so-called "Club 202" is really homecom 202; but to give some zip to the homecoming periods, the kids have made it a club.

Junior Representatives

Elect Honorary Members
The new 10B class is represented by Jack Adams and Jim Hogan with Shirley Quinn as alternate. Honorary members of congress elected by the group are Nancy Chapel, Jo Fluse, Ralph Dunbar, Charles Murray, Austin Jones, Mary Powers and Harry Wagner. New officers for this semester are Dick Adams, president; Lloyd Appell, vice-president; Lee Barzar, secretary, and Jack Hardy, treasurer.

Kemper, Rosie Wilcox and Naydine Foss.

Birmingham's team included Carol Karch, Gerrie Woolley, Virginia Hood, Shirley Green, Lora Thurston, Lois Uppleger, Ann Lundberg, Mary Glichrist, Erma Moore, Ellen Van Wagoner, Mary Lois Cole and Jeanne Lange.

Refreshments were served in the gym after the game.

Miss Alice Roulet accompanied the locals and assisted with refereeing.

Student Council's New Delegates Hold 1st Meeting

New representatives of the Baldwin Student Congress met for the first time Monday, Feb. 3.

Representing the senior class are Norman Goddard, Clifford Dunn, Mary Ann Wilkinson, Gerry Hughes, Bill Shalberg, Jack Moses, Nancy Holmes, Frank Lyndall, John Bones, Marilyn Black, Jim Carson and Ellen Van Hayes. Senior alternates are Nancy Bell, Marie Horne, Janet Roosevelt, Ted Laird, Dave Ballentine, Pete Whitelaw and Carmela Caputo.

Because there would be too many teams and not enough time to play games, there will not be any homecoming basketball intramurals this year, but this will be supplemented by a basketball tournament. Hence the jug, symbolic of basketball supremacy in intramurals, will remain in room 27, last year's winner.

This year a record number of 32 boys is on the list for preliminary consideration for the Johnson Memorial award which goes annually to the best student athlete, scholastic standing and athletic ability being given equal weight in the ratings.

Ken Doherty, Michigan track coach and one of the top coaches prospects at the recent AAU Relays at Ann Arbor and came up with the statement that he thought five men, including Quentin Breisford, former Birmingham track star now at Ohio Wesleyan had a good chance of making the overseas trip to the Olympics in London in 1948.

Sports Showup

By George A. Pope

By virtue of a victory last Friday night over Ferndale, the Maples now lead the Eastern Michigan league with four wins and one loss, followed by Port Huron in second place with three wins and one defeat.

Birmingham received news last Friday that the East Detroit game, lost the previous Tuesday night, had been forfeited by the Shamrocks 2-0 because of the use of an ineligible player, Tallman, who is in his ninth semester in high school.
