O'Neil-Carten Vows Spoken at a Double Ring Ceremony

John Paul O'Neil and June Shirley Carten chose an evening candle-light service for their marriage ceremony on Saturday. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the nuptial service at the First Presbyterian Church before an altar banked with white flowers and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Curtis of Webster street and the groom is the son of Mrs. John O'Neil and the late Mr. O'Neil of Port Huron.

Given away by her uncle, Clyde Maclean of Detroit, the bride wore traditional bridal robes of white tulle and lace. A lace coronet, rimmed with seed pearls, held in place the fingertip length tulle veil, which was outlined in the same lace as the headpiece. The bridal bouquet was of white roses. Harriet Dewitt of Birmingham, June's maid of honor, wore pink marquisette and her short veil fell from a crown of pink flowers. The other attendant, Avis Duncan, also of Birmingham, wore a gown and headpiece similar to that of the maid of honor, but fashioned in blue marquisette. Both attendants carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Richard Linberg of Port Huron was best man, while Earl Carten, brother of the bride, Donald Fitz and Robert Pessenden, both of Port Huron, served as ushers. A beige wool jersey suit was worn by the bride's mother, with which she wore a brown hat and accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. O'Neil chose a black velvet dress with a net yoke for her son's wedding, and her corsage was also of pink carnations.

A reception at the American Legion hall was held after the ceremony, from which the couple left for a motor trip to the South. For her going away ensemble, the new Mrs. O'Neil chose a grey pin-striped suit with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple plan to reside in Port Huron when they return from their wedding trip.

Mary Jeanne Forsyth

From Grosse Ile comes the news of the engagement of a former Birmingham girl, Mary Jeanne Forsyth, who informed the Irish of her betrothal to John Byron Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wright of Grosse Ile, at a buffet supper last Saturday. Mary Jeanne is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Warner S. Forsyth.

Receiving the guests in a cream wool dress, accented by a gold kid belt, the bride elect's corsage was of red roses in keeping with the Valentine motif which was used in the table decorations. Mary Jeanne is a graduate of Baldwin High School, and her fiance attended the University of Nebraska before entering the Navy in 1942. After his discharge in the spring of 1946, he attended the University of Michigan, where he is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity.
