Baldwin Classes Study, Analyze Famous Paintings

The paintings in the exhibit were prints made directly from original canvases. A slight admission to this exhibit was charged to create a fund to purchase the picture for the school or pictures which the students choose as the one they like best.

After a student talk on one of the better known classics such as Da Vinci's "The Last Supper," the classes looked at prints of the pictures by such artists as Innes, Van Dyck, Rubens, Rembrandt, Breton and Stuart, and return to classes to discuss and study the paintings.

Complete Casting for School Play

By Nan Bell

Sinister and chilling in the theme of the three-act melodrama, "Kind Lady," chosen by Miss Ruth Hull, director, for presentation March 27 and 28.

The screen-play author of "Undercurrent" recently shown at the Birmingham Theater has done it again! This time it's a modern play set in the London home of a dignified and aristocratic middle-aged woman.

The cast includes Ruth Kadell in the title role, Kind Lady, (Mary Herrick); Vincent Hayes, as Mr. Ferris, a bank representative; Shirley Mainland as Lucy Heston, Mary's friend; Kit Schifelle, portraying Rose, the maid; Nancy Keyes as Phyllis Glanning, Mary's niece; and Ed Beatty as Peter Santard, her fiance.

Henry Abbot, "gentleman" villain, played by Knight Houghton; Ada, the half-wit, by Kay Bates; the doctor, Ted Laird; Mr. and Mrs. Edwards by Dick Adams and their daughter; and Gerry Hughes as Gustav Rosenberg, a French representative.

This is a "different" play, and one that requires considerable talent and training on the part of the cast.

Sports Showup

By George A. Pope

By the time the first half of the Hazel Park game ended last Friday, the main attraction was over. Chuck Murray had scored 11 points and recorded 151 points established last season. Chuck finished the night with 16 points and an overall total of 188 points. Chuck is almost sure to break 200 points this season with two games to go at this writing.

As an incentive to get boys out for track, Coach Lloyd A. Cooper announced that the first 15 boys who signed up for track this spring will be taken to a track meet. The response was almost immediate and the boys recently went to the U. of M.-Michigan-State track meet.

The combination of Birmingham's victory over Hazel Park and Ferndale's win over Port Huron reshuffled the Eastern Michigan League standings with Birmingham all alone on top, followed by Port Huron and Ferndale, tied for second.

The band deserves a lot of credit for playing at all the home basketball games this season. The band and builds up the spirit of the team and fans.

Jim Morrish, remembered by local track fans for his duels with Bill Old in the 440, is top dash man on the G. M. indoor track team, finishing third at Ann Arbor in a recent meet.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Greetings, all you book bugs.

After concluding our weekly sessions of reading, "ritin" and "rithetic," the gang trooped back to the Baldwin gym to cheer the Maple to another victory.

Annie saw the new cheerleaders, Betty Whitelaw, Sis Hanna, Mary Grosvenor and Sherill Williams, in a swell job of leading the gang in some ear splitting yells. Our hats are off to the girls for their splendid game, between shouts for pep, bandages, and towels, Ann and Jack killed the fatted calf about their love life. Oh, boy!

After the noise in the locker room had quieted down to a dull roar, Coach Cooper invited the team into the cafeteria to celebrate the victory with a lavish lunch of barbeque and milk which Mrs. Cooper had prepared for the boys. Helping serve were Jeannot Barnes, Mary Gilchrist and Joan Kleiner.

Tramping over to the Community House, Annie saw Lloyd Appell and Bill Shalberg eagerly waiting for tickets at the Scriber Shuffle while Alita Toothacher, Tom Green, Janice Thomas, Harry Edwards, Sis Daeschner and Nancy Dalton with a "let's see who can stay up the latest" slumber party.

Wishing George Washington happy birthday with tidbits of liverwurst and bologna sandwiches at Maggie Ewels' is a lovely estate were George Burdick, Joy Stark, Jim McCall, Jo Olson, Gerry Huggert, Carolyn Metzger, Russ Davies, Ann Snyder, Bob Aikens, Jeanne Kiefer and Dick Groves.

After leaving the holiday celebrations, Annie spotted Nancy Holmes, Ed Beatty, Jennie Flashack, Jack Moses, Nancy Fisher and Doc Plant having a bit of tire trouble in front of the local theater.

We'll see you at the big game tomorrow night.

Luff and staff, Annie.
