

PART ONE

Bride-Elect Sets February 15 As Wedding Date

February 15 was chosen by another Birmingham bride-elect for the date of her marriage when Evelyn Marjorie Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Peters of Villa road, set her wedding date to Benjamin C. Hipskind, son of Mrs. George C. Hipskind of Dayton, Ohio. The couple will speak their vows before the Rev. William Roosen at the Shrine of the Little Flower.

Evelyn has asked her sister, Mrs. Frank Roosen to be her only attendant, while the best man will be her brother, William Peters, of Rochester. Frank Roosen of Birmingham and Russell Johnson of Detroit will be the ushers.

A surprise shower was given in the bride-elect's honor recently by Mrs. C. L. Frankland, Mr. T. Gravin and Mrs. Roy Stewart in the latter's home on Yorkshire road.

Another recent party was a farewell dinner at Adrien Cotter's given by Evelyn's friends at the Edison Company.

Tuesday a kitchen shower was given by Mrs. J. C. Brown of Oxford road in Berkeley, while a bathroom shower in her honor was given by Mrs. William R. Peters of Rochester.

A bride's book will be composed of recipes brought to the home of Mrs. I. Gravin on Yosemite tomorrow for the bride-to-be, while on the following day a miscellaneous shower will be given by Miss Traxler of Royal Oak.

The spinster dinner will be given at the Kingsley Inn Monday, February 10, by Mrs. Frank Roosen.

Parish Members Plan Mardi Gras For February 15

Dancing in the Mardi Gras spirit will prevail at the annual Millionaires party, given each year by members of the Holy Name Parish to raise funds for the tuition fund.

The big pre-Lenten affair will be held this year at the auditorium of the St. Hugo of the Hills School on Saturday evening, February 15. Busy making the final arrangements are chairman, Arthur Mason; Mrs. James Mellichamp and Dominic Caputo, tickets; Max Egan, who is securing the band, and David Williams, John Birney, and Mrs. William Heffernan who will supply the prizes.

Mrs. Perry Fremont and William Bronsing are planning the games.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Rosman and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Schroek will act as cashiers and Kings Baldwin and Edward Stenger will make sure that there are refreshments for all.

Ripple-Hunt Nuptial Vows Spoken at Afternoon Rites

White snapdragons and mugs were the star flowers and banded ferns decorated the Redeemer Lutheran church for the candlelight ceremony which united Leah Elisabeth Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Mohr, and Walter John Ripple, son of the Michael Illias formed the bridal bouquet.

Betty Schiebold of Detroit was the maid of honor and her gown was blue, fashioned with a taffeta bodice and net skirt. On her head was a crown of feathers matching her gown, and her flowers were American Beauty roses. French

U of M Graduates to Be Honored at Tea

Many alumnae and recent graduates of the University of Michigan will be present at the bridge tea at the home of Mrs. Max B. Tunncliffe of Cranbrook road, to be given in the honor of recent graduates.

Mrs. Hobart D. Andreae, Mrs. Marcus Cunningham and Mrs. Robert Watt will pour.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Racette, who moved here from Detroit to their new home at 371 Greenwood will have their two children? Mr. Racette is the owner of the former Van's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Ripple of Detroit, in marriage on January 25.

The Rev. Theodore Wuggezer performed the double ring ceremony before 150 guests.

For her daughter's wedding in iris and pink painted daisies.

Mrs. Ray Engel of Birmingham was the only other attendant, and her gown and matching crown of flowers were of pink. She carried yellow roses and jonquils sprinkled with blue painted daisies.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mohr chose a street-length dress of navy blue, a powder blue hat, and white accessories with pink camellias in her corsage, while the groom's mother wore dark green crepe, with black accessories and also a corsage of pink camellias.

Clarence Ripple served as his brother's best man, and the ushers were Nicholas Kurtz Mohr, the bride's brother, and Donald Schiebold.

The church lounge was banked in greens and white wedding bells, with a large bell hanging over the cake, for the reception which immediately followed the ceremony.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Mohr entertained 55 guests at the home on Lincoln avenue at a buffet supper.

The new Mrs. Ripple's going-away suit was of a sugar pine green gabardine, accented by silver buttons and her accessories were brown, as was her fur coat.

Out-of-town guests here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Vaidenko of Chicago, Miss Bernice Borkowake of South Bend, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes of Flint.

Dr. F. Onderdonk To Be Guest at AAUW Luncheon

The February luncheon of the AAUW will be held next Wednesday, February 12, at 1:00 o'clock at the Community House.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Francis Onderdonk, whose topic will be "Vienna, Metropolis of Music." Dr. Onderdonk, although American-born, went to Vienna as a young boy and has spent a total of 25 years in Austria. His stepfather was a personal friend of Johann Strauss, and young Onderdonk grew up in the rich atmosphere of music and art in Vienna.

Besides associations with Europe, he taught architecture at the University of Michigan for several years. His lecture will be illustrated by a silent moving picture as well as lantern slides.

Any AAUW member who has not been contacted for a luncheon reservation is requested to call Mrs. Edward McCaul.
