Marilyn Magruder to Wed Feb. 15

Wedding plans for Marilyn Magruder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Magruder of Kennesaw road to Edward Henry Jetter of Huntington Woods, son of Mr. Edward G. Jetter of Toledo, have been set for February 15 at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. W. Glen Harris performing the ceremony.

Marilyn has planned an informal wedding and has asked her sister, Mrs. A. B. Minton of Kennesaw, Wis. to be her only attendant. The best man will be George O'Donnell of Toledo and Kenneth E. Vogt of Huntington Woods and Guerdon Smith of Toledo will be the ushers.

Following the wedding a reception will be held at the bride's parents' home on Kennesaw. The rehearsal dinner will be held at the Fox and Hounds Inn on Friday, February 14.

A recent shower for the bride-elect was given by Mrs. George C. Robinson, the groom's aunt, at the Detroit Yacht Club. The affair was a bridge luncheon for 110 guests by a miscellaneous shower.

Another miscellaneous shower was given recently in Ann Arbor by Mrs. Kenneth Vogt and Mrs. Edward Protz at Mrs. Protz' home. On February 10 Mrs. F. B. Howell and Mrs. Harry Stahl will honor Marilyn at a kitchen shower in Mrs. Stahl's home on Riveroak road.

Armstrong-Ladouceur Wedding Rites Read at Christ Church

The chancel of Christ Church Cranbrook was banked with white altar flowers for the afternoon rites which united Josephine Adelaide Ladouceur and Harold M. Armstrong in marriage Saturday before the Rev. Charles L. Gougan.

For the ceremony the bride chose a navy three-piece suit fashioned with an Etan Jacket, with touches of white and American beauty red. Her accessories were also navy, just she carried a white orchid.

As her sister's only attendant, Miss Deane Ladouceur, selected a grey wool suit tailored on the same lines as the bridal suit, and she also chose navy accessories. Her bouquet was of yellow rosebuds and violets.

R. Dickerson of Howell, Mich., was best man, and the ushers were Blair Ladouceur and Richard Armstrong.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ladouceur wore a black and white two-piece suit with black accessories. Her outfit was highlighted by her corsage of red callulias.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the Oakland Hills Country Club. After a two weeks trip to the
