

Methodist Church Women Meet Feb. 12

The Women's Society of the First Methodist Church will meet February 12 at 1 p. m. in the dining room of the church for luncheon, served by the Sarah Allen group. Following the luncheon, a program in the afternoon will feature Miss Cora Simpson, a retired missionary.

Miss Simpson's missionary work took her to China, where she was not only active in that field, but also assisted in the training and organization of some of the first nurses in China. Mrs. Everett Allen is in charge of devotions.

Bride-Elect Feted at Shower Recently

Virginia Olsen, daughter of William Olsen and the late Mrs. Olsen of Willets street, whose marriage to Cornell Stanger, son of the Cornell Stanger of Bates street has been set for February 10, was honored at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Stewart Smith and Mrs. Merritt Olsen January 28 at Mrs. Smith's home on Clark street.

The gifts of Mrs. Edward Haccall, Mrs. Curnell Stanger, Mrs. Ina Smitherman, Mrs. Charles Follis, Mrs. Jack Faussett, Mrs. Donald Erickson, Mrs. Frank Boyes, Mrs. George Jackson, Mrs. Frank Olsen, Mrs. Rudy Schettinger, Mrs. Warner Schettinger and Mrs. Jack Ackery were arrayed under a lace trimmed umbrella, while decorations throughout the house brought out the Valentine motif.

Others feting the bride-elect were Beverly Stanger, Vella Jackson, Annabelle Perkins, Dorothy Perkins, Shirley Bunyan and Betty Young Pyke.
