Latbrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kelley have opened "The House in the Woods" to Latbrup Townsite Women's Club and its various projects. The Junior Activity's fortnightly dances held Friday evenings from eight to 12 p. m. now in the 21th year since inauguration, will enjoy the same privilege. These dances are supervised by the parents.

A bridge luncheon, the first activity to take place in "The House in the Woods" will be Tuesday, Feb. 18, at one o'clock. Members are requested to make reservations at an early date with Mrs. Earl Dolg, Mrs. Howard Steera, or Mrs. Leroy Jarvis.

A membership list under the supervision of Mrs. Carl Bush of Ruckham boulevard will be on St. Patrick's Day.

Congregational Church
Rev. John E. Rose, minister of the new Congregational Church soon to be erected in the townsite, has purchased the home of Virgil E. Boyd at 27560 east California drive. He may be reached after March first at that address.

More than 200 persons attended the first church service and 80 children were in attendance at the church school under the direction of Mrs. Wendell Deering and Mrs. Joseph Rankin.

A baptismal service for small children will follow next Sunday's 11 o'clock church service. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Boyd of East California drive will move to Sioux City, Iowa, in early March.

Miss Rena Elias of Saratoga boulevard will leave for Montreal in March to train a class of insurance representatives. Miss Elias was recently made assistant district manager of the Canada Assurance Co. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Elias.

Following the Troolines-Howard wedding last Saturday, several townsite couples made up a party at Club Berkley. They were: Mr. and Mrs. George Burhanm, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Blake, Mrs. Carl Bush and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Elias. They returned to the Howard residence for the evening reception. Mrs. Walter Howard was hostess to 25 guests on Monday at a tea.

Mrs. Evan H. Wright of Avila avenue is home economist for a baking company and she gives baking demonstrations in Hudson's auditorium. Mrs. Wright is the mother of three daughters, all of whom were Army Wives during the war.

A marriage of interest to this community will be that of Nora Ella Lannon of Detroit and Lawrence Clayton Inman of the townsite. The ceremony will take place Saturday at 11 o'clock at St. Mary's of Redford. Nora is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lannon and Harry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Inman. A reception for 200 guests at Red Run Golf Club will follow the ceremony. Nora has chosen for her attendants, Jane Lannon, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and Pat Flynn and Pat Dunden as bridesmaids. Paul Inman will be his brother's best man and Jerry and Don Inman, his brothers will be ushers.

Larry attended St. Mary's of Redford high school and was an altar boy in that church four years. The bachelor dinner will be given by several friends of his, veterans. The rehearsal dinner will be at the Lawrence Inman home on San Jose boulevard tonight.

Five showers have been given in honor of Nora Ellen. She was graduated from St. Mary's of Redford high school in 1943 and Larry in 1941.

The couple have planned a honeymoon to New York City for a week.

The Townsite Bowling League was host Saturday evening to the wives of the members at a dinner dance at Northwood Inn.

Girl Scout Troop 9 Presents Plays

The Girl Scouts of Troop 9 at Walnut Lake, under the leadership of Mrs. Herman Schwartz, presented two plays recently for their friends and parents to show the work they have been doing to earn the Dramatic Badge.

The cast of "Hansel and Gretel," directed by Mrs. Schwarz and given by the Senior Patrol, included Mary Ellen Given, Gloria Leveque, Barbara Thorne, Barbara Wilson and Patricia Kemp. Stage hands for this production were Joyce Noonan and Nancy Boston.

"Cinderella," directed by Norma Mae Heran, assistant leader, was given by the Junior Patrol. Actresses were Betty Bressett, Nancy Boston, Carol Fisher, Sharon Moore and Joyce Noonan, while Barbara Wilson and Patty Kemp were stage hands.

Sharon Moore and Betty were the hostesses for the evening, the decorations were handled by Carroll Fisher and Mary Ellen Given and the refreshments were arranged by Barbara Thorne and Gloria Leveque.
