AAU meet Saturday. Because Chuck Murray was also unable to run due to a sore foot, Coach Cooper cancelled the trip to Ann Arbor for the five boys planning to run.

We were all glad to hear that Birmingham's Quentin Brelsford, national collegiate cross country champion, copped the mile run at the AAU Relays at Ann Arbor Saturday in the good time of 4:20 against stiff competition, including Charles Birsdale, Michigan, Big Nine Conference two-mile champ.

The Maples are being led in scoring so far this season by recordholder Chuck Murray with 134 points to his credit at this writing. He is followed by Jay Moore with 30 points and Dick Blauman and "Rock" Littleton with 23 points each. Roy Reynolds would undoubtedly have been up among the leaders but for graduation at midyear. At that time Rog had scored 41 points.

By coincidence, the Maples and all their opponents have attempted a total of 133 foul shots and made 64 for a percentage of .481 each.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Well, kids, as you probably already know, Annie's up and around again (at least physically) and she wants to thank her twin brothers for taking over her post and doing such a fanatic job.

Although not all the gang went to see the basketball game Friday night, we still had plenty of ad spectators.

Among those feeling the disappointment of defeat were Marilyn Blauman, Lois Steele, Barb Hughes, Marilyn Black, Lee Barger, Jo Fines, Deane Cramer, Gerry Hughes, Pete Whitelaw and Rusty Davies. It wasn't all defeat though, 'cause we can't forget that our reserves came up with a very nice victory.

"Darn this motor!" and "Roek her, for she's a sax!" were two of the most frequent expressions Annie heard Saturday night after the "58-47" loss, given in honor of the January graduated class at the Birmingham Country Club. But despite the ice and cold, every one piled out to the club to dance the night away (and who could think of a better way to spend an evening!).

While the chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Kiefer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kleimer, and Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer "chatted" (you know, they're the ones who are supposed to watch the kids but usually go somewhere and have a "little" card game), Margie Erwin, George Burdick, Mrs. Dox, Flant, Hattie Breitmeier, Bob Fisher, "Peter" Foster, Leon Thurston, Nan Holmes, Ed Beatty, Marie Horn and Dick Jeffers danced and stood around to talk over Friday night's game.

During intermission, Joy Stark, Jim McCall, Ngn Dalton, Jim Carson, Gretta Scholze, Drayton McClelland, Liz Lind, Bob Woodruff, Lyn Martin, Guy Tunncliffe, Janet Roosevelt and Jerry Anderson watched the couples exhibiting the development of dancing, starting with the waltz (1858) and ending with the jitterbug (1947).

Annie wondered why people kept looking at their palms and shaking their heads; then she found out that there was a fortune teller upstairs.

Coming down the steps from the fortune teller's booth were Joan Edwards, Bob Grindley, Jo Kates, Tom Hubbard, Barb Toles, Herb Tewillinger, Ginny Reinhart, Gene Sutton, Jeannie Kiefer, Dick Groves, Ann Snyder and Bob Aikens.

See you all at the game tomorrow night.

Annie.

Reserves Triumph Over Highland Park Team, 33-26

By Hugh Quinn
Birmingham's reserve basketball squad journeyed to Highland Park Friday night and took a hard-fought contest from the hosts 33-26. The Parkers were a scrappy group trailing by but one point at the end of the last quarter.

Highland Park took over the reins in the second period and held a substantial margin before the Maples scored. Then Big Wal Bodie began hitting the hoop to narrow the gap to a single point. Dick Murray knotted the score with a free throw, and in the final minute Pat Wall sank a long shot to regain the lead for the Maples. The score at the halfway mark was 18-16.

Scoring in the next period was even; but in the final quarter, the Maples pulled away. Wall led the winners with 14 points.

Future Cheerleaders to Receive Training

To choose new probationary cheerleaders, two trout meetings were held Tuesday and Thursday of last week.

About 25 students came to the tryouts. Of these, Jo Kates, Carolyn Harding, Betty Whitelaw, Sarah Breitmeier, Mary Grosvenor, Pat Shiner, Elizabeth Hanks, Sherrill Williams, George Townsend and Don Eilers were selected to be trained as future cheerleaders.

They will work with the regular cheerleaders. If they improve, they will become the cheerleading squad for next year.

Ferdale-B'ham Game Will Narrow League Leaders

By Jack Moses
Birmingham's Maples, co-leaders in the Eastern Michigan League, trek to Ferdale tomorrow night to engage Coach Roy Burkhardt's hoopers.

Birmingham, Ferdale and Port Huron are despatched at the top of the heap, each with three wins and one loss. This will be a real test for the Maroons, as the Hallsplitters possess a tall, rangy squad paced by Tom Kirkpatrick and Vic Hahn, who scored 17 and 13 points, respectively, against Hazel Park last Friday.

This was Kirkpatrick's last effort for the Purple and Gold as he was lost to Burkhardt's five through midyear graduation. The Hallsplitters will be definitely weakened by his loss.

The Maples barely edged the Lincolns earlier in the season at Birmingham 37-35.

Ferdale gained a tie for the league leadership last Friday by virtue of a win-over Hazel Park while the Maples were dropping a non-league tilt to the Polar Bears of Highland Park, 37-28.

WHEN EDISON SHOCKED THE FRENCHMEN...

When the committee of a noted French scientific society, splendid in cutaways and silk toppers, called at Menlo Park to present the society's medal, Edison was engaged in an important experiment. He was busy, perspiring and shirtless. After much persuasion and without dressing, he took off just enough time to accept the medal and express his appreciation of the honor.

Like all truly great men, Mr. Edison hated sham and pretense. He was always as natural as an old shoe. He could laugh at himself and admit himself wrong. He was honored by the entire civilized world, yet on one occasion he refused an award because it required his wearing a sash.

"You have to have dirt on your hands to get along with the Old Man," one of his laboratory employees taunted a white-collar worker. And another summed him up with "He ain't got no side—he ain't got no front—he's just a genius."

He was a man idolized and eulogized by millions. He could walk with kings—yet he kept the common touch.

Today, as we approach the centennial of his birth, we are proud that our company, like many other independent electric companies, bears the name of this great American.
