Native Tells Ruth Shain Class about Greek Conditions

The Ruth Shain International Relations Class entertained Miss Natalie Mela of Athens, Greece, at their meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 14.

Miss Mela spoke of life during the years of occupation, of the underground movement, of the character of the Greek patriots and of the chances for political security in the future.

On Tuesday, Jan. 21, the class will concern itself with the achievements of the recently adjourned assembly of the United Nations. Two reports, that of the Atomic Energy Commission and the International Refugee Commission will be included.

A discussion of the Community Council's "Wandering Wednesday" night will occupy the remainder of the time.

Margaret Halsay's "Colorblind" will be the basis for discussion on Jan. 28. Mrs. Allan Lutz, Mrs. W. N. Milligan, Mrs. John K. Ormond and Mrs. E. K. Swartz will be the participants.

All of these meetings are a unit to themselves and, at any time, listeners are welcome.
