Local Man Weds Cecelia Spina in Double Ring Rites

In a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Father T. J. Neuman at nine o'clock in the morning of Jan. 11 at St. Rita's church in Detroit, Cecelia Theresia Spina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanislaus Edward Spina of Detroit, became the bride of Francis Joseph Carrette, son of Mrs. Cecelia Carrette of East Long Lake road and the late Mr. Carrette.

The altar was banked with white chrysanthemums when the bride, given in marriage by her father, preceded down the aisle. Her gown was of white satin, fashioned with a full skirt and long circular train. A ruffle of lace edged the low-cut bodice, which was filled in to the high round neckline with net. Satin inserts were fastened along the bottom of the lace-edged veil, which was held in place by a crown of net trimmed in apple blossoms. Cecelia carried a bridal bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. James Gouin of Bloomfield Hills, the bridegroom's twin sister, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of heavy sequin. Filled with a peg-topped skirt, high round neckline and a fitted waistband. With this she wore matching gauntlets and carried a shower bouquet of fuchsia chrysanthemums. Fuchsia cuticle plumes nestled in her hair. All of the bridesmaids wore dresses identical to that of the matron-of-honor. They carried the aqua gauntlets but carried bouquets of light yellow chrysanthemums and wore aqua plumes in their hair. These attendants included Mrs. Wadell Wardrop, Mrs. Richard Elwood and Priscilla Spina, all of Detroit.

James Gouin of Bloomfield Hills was best man and the ushers were Wadell Wardrop, Richard Elwood and Robert Nye of Pontiac.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spina chose a gray crepe street-length dress with brown accessories. Mrs. Carrette wore black crepe trimmed in sequins. Each mother had a corsage of deep red roses.

A breakfast for the family and the wedding party was held after the ceremony and the reception took place in the V.V. Hall, Hazel Park at seven o'clock in the evening of the same day.

When Mr. and Mrs. Carrette left for their home in Ypsilanti, Michigan, the bride wore a red, mink-trimmed coat over her medium blue evening gown. Her accessories were brown. The couple will live in Highland Park when they return.

Mrs. Karl Kysor of Puritan road has offered her home for the occasion of a subscription benefit bridge to raise the money for the current administrative expenses of the Birmingham branch of Save The Children Federation.

The party will take place Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 2 p. m. Individual table prizes have been donated by persons interested in the work of the federation.

Anyone who might wish to attend the bridge party or the tea at 4 p. m. are cordially invited by the sponsors of the affair. Mrs. Frederic W. Sevin is in charge of handling the tickets and arranging the party.

Pre-Nuptial Events Conclude With Two Dinners This Evening

Parties for bride-elect Marian Clarke, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Clarke of Glenhurst drive, and her fiancé, Walter L. Fry, Jr., will conclude tonight with the spinner and bachelor dinners.

Walter L. Fry, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas of Bardotown, Ky., will give the spinner dinner at the home of her fiancée, Mrs. Fry, Jr., at 2751 Rockham boulevard and in the afternoon at the home of her fiancée, Mrs. Fry, Jr., at 2751 Rockham boulevard.

Among those invited are Mrs. Norman Grawks, Mrs. Fry, Patsy Clarke, Barbara Fry, Barbara Holland, Mrs. Charles N. Clarke and Brooks Gatzman. Brooks will be given the bachelor dinner by a group of Walter's friends.

The bachelor dinner will be given at the Recces Club by a group of Walter's friends. Those present will include Dr. Clarke, the senior Walter L. Fry, Chalmers LeMay, David Thomas, Rudy Verucy, Charles Clarke, Robert Hall and Norman Clarke, Jr.

Marian and Walter will be married at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening.

Mildred Johnson of Merrill avenue is the new recording secretary; Mrs. Norman Prentiss, George street, treasurer, and Betty Cook of Greenwood avenue, corresponding secretary.

Guests and members present at the dinner and installations included Mrs. Duane "Baby" Mrs. Harry J. Johnson, Mrs. Clyde M. Coons, Mrs. Edna McCann, Mrs. Carl T. Johnson, Mrs. Vera Withington and Mrs. Julia Kleiser.

Lathrup Townsite News

No. 11 Subdivision school district and its Board no longer exist and we are a part of a 27 school district. An election of a school board will take place at the usual polls tomorrow, Jan. 17th, from 7 a. m. until 8 p. m.

An unusual but important rule in this election is that if votes cast for a candidate are insufficient to elect him to one of the two offices, those votes will not count for one of the two-year terms—only his votes marked "two-year term" will count for that term.

It is imperative that this district be represented while the consolidation is in its formative years and the name of Kenneth Thompson, former moderator of the school board, has been recommended. He resides at 2751 Rockham boulevard and it is said he would accept the office.

It's a bridge luncheon at the R. E. Ellis home next Tuesday when eight jolly picnickers will meet for hamburgers or hot dogs served before a fireplaces. The group meets each month.

David B. Redwood, 18475 Quentin drive, music director of this church, needs more members for the mixed choir. Redwood hopes to have 30 voices in readiness for the first church service to be held Sunday, Feb. 2nd, at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the Annie Lathrup school. Choir members are requested to meet at his home, 18475 Quentin drive, at eight o'clock tonight for practice.

Licenses for dogs in Southfield Township are due. Unless renewed before March 1st, an extra fee is required. Licenses will be issued in Pontiac only. They are now payable at the Township office.

On Jan. 10 the Youth Group held a dance in the Annie Lathrup school with about 60 in attendance. The Youth Group of Royal Oak have been secured to teach ballroom dancing before the parties which are every second Friday of the month. Lessons will be from 7:30 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. Committee members take turns in furnishing sandwiches and soft drinks are available. Mrs. L. Mackey of the boulevard is chairman and is assisted by Mr. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ahlers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beyma, Mr. and Mrs. George Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cline and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torrance. A bonus skating party will be given for the dancing party on Friday, Jan. 24th, at Pine Lake.

Barbara Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cline, will be hostess Saturday evening to 14 girls at a slumber party in her home on Saratoga boulevard.

The Shrine Chapter's January business meeting will take place Monday, Jan. 20th, at 1:30 in the Shrine of the Little Flower Community House. The Rev. Father Aurelian, assistant at the Shrine, will be guest speaker. Following the business meeting the President's annual Tea will take place honoring the outgoing president, Mrs. E. J. Merdian, and the incoming president, Mrs. Clarence Chapman. A membership drive will go into effect at the meeting and until March 1st under the direction of Mrs. Marnius Van Vurst. Prospective members are urged to come.

Detroit Minister to Give Talk on Welfare Work

Friday evening, January 17, at 7 o'clock will be the time when St. George's Society of Christ Church Cranbrook will gather for its next supper meeting to hear the Rev. G. Paul Musselman speak about his work in the heart of Detroit.

Rev. Musselman, in his capacity as director of the Episcopal City Mission of Detroit, is working closely with the social workers of Detroit in addition to the juvenile courts. He has an unusually good opportunity to see what is going on behind the scenes in this great industrial city.

The St. George's Society is a newly formed group at Christ Church which has been carrying on its program since September. Made up of young married couples of post-college age as well as those formerly with the armed forces, it meets regularly for dinner and a program.

Will Show Movies Robert Skinner, president of St. George's Society, announced this week that the committee planning their meeting will be headed by Mrs. Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. John Aliman, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Conrad and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denyes.

Following the speaker, there will be two moving picture shorts on selected subjects.

Mother's Club to Hear Ralph Lee at Annual Father's Night Jan. 21

The annual fathers' night when members of the Mothers' Club of Little Flower High School entertain their husbands, will take place Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 8:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Mrs. John F. Daneky of Mohrigan road, program chairman, has secured Dr. Ralph Lee, author and lecturer, as speaker. After his address, a buffet supper will be served. Mrs. Norman Dewas is in charge of refreshments. Seating at the table will be Mrs. James H. Hill of Westwood drive.

Social Briefs

MRS. E. A. SMITH of Ann Street will leave today for a two-month stay in St. Petersburg, Fla. She is motoring south with Mrs. J. E. Morrison of Royal Oak.

The annual HALLOCK family midwinter get-together was held at the Community House on Friday evening. Families of Charles Hallock of Ann street, Arch Hallock of Royal Oak, Fred Hallock of Laka Orion, Delmar Gough of Highland Park and the late Will Hallock of Pontiac and friends met for dinner followed by an evening of modern and old-time square dancing.

Leaving Monday for a two-months' trip through the West are MR. and MRS. A. G. REED of Suffolk road. They will go to Phoenix, Ariz., and then on to California and New Mexico.

MR. and MRS. ANTHONY D'AGOSTINA, who have recently moved from Madison avenue into their new home on Rivenook road, were hosts at a housewarming last Saturday evening. About 50 guests from Birmingham and Fort Wayne, Ind., were present.

MR. and MRS. JOHN M. ALLMAN will be hosts for cocktails preceding the party of the Dance Club at Forest Lake Country Club this Saturday evening. Members of the committee in charge of the January affair are the Allmans, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Stubbins, the Cortland Cromwells, the William H. Burgmans and Mr. and Mrs. John I. Coolidge.
