J. V. Wendorph
Wed in Indiana on December 22

In a Sunday afternoon ceremony Dec. 22 at the home of the bride's parents in Indianapolis, Ind., J. Vernon Wendorph took as his bride Elizabeth Jo Robertson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Robertson, while the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Wendorph of Pleasant Ridge, formerly of Birmingham.

The officiating minister, the Rev. Smith of Kokomo, Ind., performed the service in a setting of Christmas greens and white tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in ivory satin, with a bouffant skirt, tiny puffed sleeves, and sweetheart neckline. She wore long mits, a finger-tip veil, and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Her three attendants, Indianapolis friends of the bride, wore bouffant gowns in shades of pink and blue, and carried colonial bouquets of chrysanthemums and carnations. Best man and ushers were also Indianapolis friends of the couple.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Robertson home for the families and close friends.

On their return from a motor trip to Florida, where the young couple are staying for a fortnight, they will make their home for the present time in Indianapolis.

The groom, who is a Baldwin High graduate, served three years in the Navy, and has been living in the Indiana city since his discharge a year ago. His wife is a graduate of Butler College in Indianapolis.
