

Out-of-Towners Speak Vows Here

The marriage of Victoria Gurny, daughter of Stephen Gurny and the late Mrs. Gurny, to Thomas K. Kleene of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kleene of Asheville, N. C., took place in the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz K. Kleene, of Cranbrook road at 4:30 p. m. Saturday afternoon.

The Kleene home was decorated throughout for the occasion with a beautiful arrangement of white tulips and snapdragons before a background of green fern banks.

The mantel and seven-tier branched candelabra on each side, before which the Rev. Henry Lewis, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Ann Arbor, performed the ceremony.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Ann Gurny of Dearborn, while Thomas F. Kleene of Detroit was his brother's best man.

Following the wedding a small reception at the home of the family for the immediate family and close friends was held, from which the newlyweds left for their wedding trip.

When the couple return from a tour of the East, they will reside at the Malern Apartments in Detroit.

Always read the label of any medicine before you take it—and take it exactly as directed. And when this caution is applied to Barbiturates—"sleeping pills"—it means "take them as directed by your physician."

Never take them on your own initiative. If you don't sleep soundly because of some physical condition or mental strain, see your doctor. If he prescribes a Barbiturate, we will fill his prescription. We will not sell "sleeping pills" without this written authorization from a physician known to us. Uninformed abuse of "sleeping pills" can have harmful consequences—even cause death.
