Model of Home for Governor at State Capitol
The home will combine residential and business needs of Michigan's governor and his family with provisions for state receptions, lodging of visiting dignitaries, and a secure retreat for the governor's bodyguard and family.

Such a number are working on posters. Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber, Mrs. Arthur Lougee, Mrs. Charles F. Collins and James Abbott are designing them. A group consisting of Miss Betty Bricker, Mrs. Robert H. Hoover, Mrs. Fanny M. Lewis, Mrs. Stanley Anderson will work with Mrs. Calvin Dennison in duplicating some of these designs.

Committee chairmen of the Birmingham League of Women Voters gathered Monday afternoon for a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. George T. Saunders, league president, to map strategy plans for the organization's action in legislative matters pending in Washington and Lansing.

Through the generosity and cooperation of Howard Holsh, manager of the Birmingham Civic Center, the Birmingham Civic Center has secured the space and facilities have been made available for the two performances.

Members of the cast are Mrs. William Keigel, Miss Barbara Underwood, Mrs. Donna H. Lawrence, Mrs. Joseph E. Williams, Mrs. E. L. Kinney, Mrs. Chas. W. Bradley, Mrs. Martin Le. Purcell, William Breese, Mrs. Thomas B. Clark, Mrs. Hans Schjolden, Mrs. Joan R. Tabor and Mrs. S. S. P. Green.

Mrs. George F. Green is in charge of costumes, assisted by Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. H. B. Thornbury, Mrs. R. O. Ouse, Mrs. Donald Fairbairn's crew collecting studio portraits in the homes of Mrs. John T. Emmet and Miss Jane Ray.

Mrs. Stanley Abbott is in charge of scenery, with Mrs. Thomas T. Stolberg, Mrs. Donald Ray, Mrs. W. H. Burgess, Mrs. Robert T. Garrison and Mrs. Edwin W. Deer as helpers.

These classes will be given after school hours and children may register at home or at the school. Mrs. H. A. Wentworth, in charge of registration for the women's relation-rhythm class may be contacted concerning the ten week course.

Mrs. A. K. Toepfer, chairman of the education committee of Adams County Parent-Teacher Association, announces that four new classes are beginning this week.

Grimm Fairy Tale Is Being Readied for Presentation at Youngsters of Birmingham
The production, a charming version of the Grimm fairy tale, "The Elves and the Shoemaker," is being put on by Birmingham children's Theatre which is sponsored by enthusiasts recruited chiefly from the ranks of the American Association of University Women.

Through the generosity and cooperation of Howard Holsh, manager of the Birmingham Civic Center, the Birmingham Civic Center has secured the space and facilities have been made available for the two performances.

Members of the cast are Mrs. William Keigel, Miss Barbara Underwood, Mrs. Donna H. Lawrence, Mrs. Joseph E. Williams, Mrs. E. L. Kinney, Mrs. Chas. W. Bradley, Mrs. Martin Le. Purcell, William Breese, Mrs. Thomas B. Clark, Mrs. Hans Schjolden, Mrs. Joan R. Tabor and Mrs. S. S. P. Green.
