Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

A wonderful surprise is in store for the members of the Women's Club which meets Monday. While the subject is very, very "husbandly," suffice it to say every member will want to be present at the meeting at two o'clock Monday when it will be aired for approval.

Following the meeting Sanford Scheidt of the Crime Prevention Bureau, Detroit, will be guest speaker and his topic will be "The Police Department and the Juvenile." Tea will follow.

Troolines-Howard

Before the bringing forward of the bride's and with silver candelabra and white carnations and anemones at either side, Mary Howard and Leonard Troolines spoke their marriage vows at four o'clock Saturday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents on Raskhan boulevard. Dr. Henry Crane was the officiating minister. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Howard of the Townsite and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Degenes Troolines of Detroit.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a bouffant gown of white silk net over crepe with high shirred neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. The skirt was trimmed with bows of the crepe.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a simple cap of shirred silk net with orange blossoms at either side. She carried a colonial bouquet of bride's roses with cascades of satin streamers.

Mrs. Wendel R. Doering attended her sister and she was gowned in peach net, styled bouffant. Her bouquet was of same with shoulder length veil and her bouquets were of deep pink carnations.

The bridesmaids were Mary Troolines, sister of the bridegroom, and Bernadine Hunter. They were covered alike in aqua net styled similar to the bride's and with shirred net caps which was attached shoulder-length veiling. Their bouquets were colonial and of pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length navy crepe gown trimmed with touches of pink and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in plum velvet with matching hat and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

Little Linda Doering, age 3 1/2 years, was the flower girl and she was dressed in shirred white net and carried a basket of rose petals. Best man was John Troolines, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony. The tea table was covered with a white tablecloth centered with a tiered wedding cake and with crystal candelabra at either end.

Mary was graduated from Lincoln high school in 1939 and is a graduate nurse of St. Joseph's hospital, Detroit. She is now a surgical nurse with the Michigan Mutual Liability hospital. Leonard is a sophomore at Wayne University, majoring in electrical engineering.

Townsite Community Church First Service Sunday

The new Congregational Church will hold its first church service at 10 o'clock Sunday in the Annie Lathrup school, Southfield road between 11 and 12 Mile roads. The Rev. John D. Rice, associate minister of the North Congregational church, Detroit, is minister of the new chapel.

In time a church will be built on two lots on Southfield which have been purchased by the church association. The financial burden will not be entirely on the residents in the surrounding area but will be shared by Congregationalists who will underwrite a part of it.

A number of 20 young men, being trained under David B. Redwood of the Townsite, who has temporarily been in charge. A director of married ability he has trained the Chevrolet Glec Club the past 18 years. Redwood would like more male voices for the church choir.

Craig Bowen, local artist, designed the altar, platform and railing, and the woodwork was executed by a Townsite. These pieces will be in place for the Sunday service. The central cross, candlesticks and collection plates, as well as a cash gift towards the

Lions Hear Latest Report of Progress of Hospital Drive

The Birmingham Lions Club, at last week's meeting, heard Dr. Robert S. Steen, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Royal Oak, speak in behalf of the volunteer committee of canvassers for the new Woodward General Hospital fund.

He reported on activity of the solicitors up-to-date and made a plea to the group to respond generously to the fund raising campaign. He cited the dire need for a hospital in this area in comparison with other communities of our state or nation.
