

Saturday Morning Art Class Plans Tea at New Studio

The Saturday Morning Art Class will serve tea in their new studio at the Community House the afternoon of Saturday, Jan. 18.

Students' work will be displayed by Ann Rutledge and Nancy Gilliam with Mr. Paul Schaefer as chairman of the committee.

Special guests at the event will be members of the teen-age Daughters' Club. They, too, will have some of their work exhibited.

Mrs. Paul Schaefer is director of the group

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 12:
"The Bread of Life (John 6:33): 'The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.'
"And the Bible teaches in this passage, (Psalm 139:23, 24) 'Search me, O God, and know my thoughts: try me, and know my ways: and see there be no guile in me, and lead me in the way of thy truth.'
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: (p. 241): "The baptism of Spirit, washing the body of all the impurities of flesh, signifies that the pure in heart see God and are approaching spiritual life and its demonstration."

Christian Science Lecture Scheduled For January 19th

Mrs. Elisabeth F. Norwood, C.S.B., S. of Brookline, Mass., will deliver a lecture on Christian Science in the church office, Chester at Willits streets, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 19.

Mrs. Norwood is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.
In commenting on this lecture Mark Harris, of the Lecture Committee of First Church, said today, "Many people are interested in learning about Christian Science. They like to know how Christian Science heals disease, how it banishes fear and solves all manner of business problems. The purpose of this lecture is to give the public the facts in simple, understandable terms."
First Church of Christ, Scientist, Birmingham, is sponsoring this lecture, and it is free to everyone. Doors will open at 3:15.

Membership Training Begun by Church

Membership training classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 15, at 7 p. m. and will continue each week until Holy week at the Embury Methodist Church, located at Woodward and Benuaville. Any youths who have attained their twelfth year may join the class.

Child Study Club to Hear Mrs. Ford Ritner

The January meeting of the Child Study Club will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 14, at 8:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Edwin Koran on Wimbledon drive.

Mrs. Ford Ritner, head of the Village Nursery School in Franklin, will be the speaker. Her subject is "Discipline of the Pre-School Child."
