By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Women's Club met Monday afternoon with a fair attendance considering the cold weather and hazardous driving conditions within the townsite. Many cars were stuck in the snow banks directly in front of the school and found it necessary to get AAA help.

Speaker for the day was Mrs. Francis Boddie, who chose for her discussion, "The Current Best," touching on several books by contemporary writers. She recommended "Independent People" as the best book she had read since the World War when once again

Due to the efforts of the South-side Goodfellows and the generosity of the community throughout this area, many needy families received pleasant surprises Christmas. More than 50 baskets containing food sufficient for a family dinner for eight people were packed and distributed along with new and reconditioned toys. In some instances, clothing was supplied and cash gifts to the aged who rely on small pensions which would not cover Christmas. All cases were investigated before aid was given; this necessitated great

New Church News

Again we announce that the first church service of the Congregational church recently established in this area, will take place at 10 o'clock Sunday, Feb. 2, in the auditorium of the Annie Latbrup school, Southfield road between 11 and 12 Mile roads.

The Rev. John Rose, former assistant pastor of the North Congregational church, Detroit, will officiate at the service.

David B. Redwood, Chevrolet Glee Club director the past 18 years has temporarily taken charge of the church music and is now in the process of organizing a mixed choir. He anticipates a 20-piece choir and expects to have a program in readiness for the opening service. There is still a need for male voices and anyone desirous of joining please contact him at Southfield 3122. There will be a meeting in his home, 1145 Quentin drive, Latbrup Townsite, at 7:30 p. m. today.
