Oakland County RED CROSS NEWS

The two chapter offices, located at 53 1/2 W. Huron street, Pontiac, and 321 West Sixth street, Royal Oak, will be closed all day Saturday during July and August, according to Marshall Smith, chapter chairman. Staff members can be located, however, for emergency calls, through the emergency telephone number, Pontiac, 4-1822.

Smith also announced that a Disaster Institute will be held in Oakland County July 22nd and 23rd under V. A. Phillips, Red Cross State Relief Officer.

Phillips will meet with chairman of sub-committees in order to form a preparedness plan which would operate in event of an emergency. Monthly reports of Red Cross Disaster Operations show that no part of the nation is immune from Disaster.

In Michigan alone, during the month of April, 3,465 families suffered loss; the Red Cross operated 22 shelters; 2,393 homes were damaged.

James Moon is Vice-chairman of Disaster in Birmingham.

2 Birmingham Boys Will Participate in Canoe Camping Trip

Tim Adams and Richard Hartman will leave next Monday with other Boy Scouts from the Detroit area for a week's trip by canoe through lakes and rivers of South-eastern Michigan.

These trips are planned by the Boy Scouts of America and are under the leadership of District Executive Arthur J. Lusty.

The boys will begin their trip above Orchard Lake through Flipper Straights Lakes and into the Huron River to Ann Arbor which is about an 80-mile trip. The boys will be discovering road camping locations for the State Department of Conservation which will lead to the development of more State parkways.

Bloomfield Mothers Establish Nursery

The Summer Co-operative nursery school has been opened in the Sunday school of Christ Church Cranbrook, it was announced this week.

This school is worked under a co-operative plan whereby the mothers must promise to be an assistant teacher one morning a month. It was organized by mothers who were unable to find room in other nursery schools to put their children.

There are two regular teachers at present who have had experience along this line. They are Mrs. J. Henderson Barr, from Massachusetts, and Mrs. David Geer from Bloomfield Hills.

The school held its first parent teacher meeting Tuesday night in the school room at Christ Church.

Greenfield Village Trip Planned by Y

Birmingham YMCA groups will go to Greenfield Village to spend the day sightseeing next Tuesday.

A chartered bus will take the 35 boys and girls with chaperones to Dearborn and return them safely.

"This is the fourth trip program of the summer sponsored by the Y," Ed Kirbert, local secretary said, "and the kids sure like it."
