THREE SCORE AND NINE YEARS AGO

Back in 1878 the first issue of The Eccentric made its appearance. Since that time, we have not missed a single publication date . . . in spite of wars, economic upheavals, or any other circumstance in the course of a business existence.

Maybe this responsibility of regularly meeting a date-line partly explains a reputation for dependability in our commercial printing service. We are very mindful of keeping a promise and are experienced and resourceful in hurding obstacles, which to others, might seem insurmountable. This dependable service from a 69 year old business is yours for the asking.
