

Roberta Mill To Speak Vows Next Saturday

Roberta Ann Mill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Mill of Gordon Court, will speak her marriage vows to Adrian Testerman at a ceremony Saturday, July 26, at the First Presbyterian Church. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Testerman of Rogersville, Tenn.

The Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harvey will officiate.

Mrs. Walter Schmitt of Detroit will be the matron of honor, and Roberta has asked her sister, Charlotte, to be maid of honor.

Betty Jane Bledsoe of Greensboro, N. C., and Jean Felhretton of Baldwin, Long Island, N. Y., are the other attendants.

Murrell Testerman will be his brother's best man, with Harrison Marshall of Bolton, S. C., Frank Testerman and But Testerman, cousins of the groom, of Rogersville, and Melvin Tilson, of Asheville, N. C., as ushers.

The reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Pine Lake Country Club will be the scene of the rehearsal dinner which will be held Friday evening, July 25.

A number of showers feted the bride-elect have been given lately, beginning with a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. William Halden of East Lincoln road last Thursday. Her guests were Charlotte Mill, Betty Jane Bledsoe, Mrs. Richard Brandt, Mrs. Walter Campbell, Mrs. Robert Wandel, Nancy DeLus, Sally Carey, Arois Steinbaugh and Mrs. Walter Schmitt.

Mrs. Walter Fry, Jr., was hostess at a tea Sunday afternoon in her mother's home on Glenhurst road, while yesterday Sally Carey honored the bride-elect at a luncheon and table-top shower at her Southside road home.

Jeanne Stone will entertain this evening at a kitchen shower in her home on West Maple boulevard, and Friday Mrs. F. E. Fleitmeier and her daughter, Mrs. Wal-

Announce Troth of Two Local Girls

The betrothals of two Birmingham sisters, Joan Virginia and Beverly Johnstone, are announced this week by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnstone of North Woodward avenue.

Joan is engaged to Ralph E. Purdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Purdy of Saginaw, while Beverly's fiance is Dr. Joseph M. Miller of Terre Haute, Ind.

Beverly recently graduated with honors from Michigan State College, and her sister is now attending that college. Both girls are affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority.

Dr. Miller, Beverly's fiance, also recently graduated from Michigan State. Ralph also attends that college where he is a member of the honorary engineering fraternity, Tau Beta Pi.

August 30 has been set as the date of the marriage of Joan Virginia and Ralph, while the other engaged couple will speak their vows in the fall.

The marriage will take place at 4 p.m. at the Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorn Smith, Birmingham residents for 23 years, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next Monday, July 21.

They will be the guests of honor at a family dinner at the Dearborn inn Sunday evening, when about 30 of their immediate family will feted the couple.

Their daughter, Mrs. Austin Thompson, and her husband, will fly from Honolulu to be on hand for the celebration, and their son, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thorn Smith, Jr., will come from Ferguson, Mo., for their parents' 50th anniversary.

Mrs. Schmitt, will be hostesses at a luncheon in Bobbie's honor.

CHECKED FOR JUNIOR WEARERS

Black and white gingham combined with black apun linen.

LITTLE capes and moulded hems are big news for Juniors this Spring and Summer, along with skirts an inch longer and mostly a lot fuller.

An example all-in-one of these important trends is the New York style pictured above, combining a versatile short-sleeved dress with a separate, quaint little cape cut short enough to show off a small waistline.

New York designers of junior fashions believe that most of the wearers of their clothes will approve of the new and not-too-long length in skirts. At the same time, they point out that this season's hems are sufficiently deep to let out. Naturally, the girl who likes pleats will welcome them back, but she will be certain that the hemline is right for her. Or, she will take her pleats in equally full measure but unpressed.

As in other collections, suits in junior sizes are shown this Spring with both slim and full skirts. Modified cutaway and box jackets top the slim skirts, and blouse jackets and boleros fasten snugly above the full. Especially pretty styles of the latter type are fashioned of crisp black faille and shown with eyelid embroidery blouse.

Mrs. John Wood to Attend Convention

Mrs. John P. Wood of Lyonhurst road will be among the 600 auxiliary members who will attend the fifty-first annual convention of the American Osteopathic Association in Chicago at the Stevens Hotel July 20-25.

Mrs. Wood, wife of Dr. John Wood, president of the American Osteopathic Association, will be honored by the auxiliary members at a reception and tea which will be given July 21 in the Wedgewood Room of Marshall Field and Company.

At Fort Sheridan

Second Lt. Thomas C. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tucker of Dorchester road, has arrived at Fort Sheridan, Ill., for a six week's course of training in military police work. It was announced this week by the Fifth Army Public Relations Office at Fort Sheridan.

Tucker was graduated in 1943 from Cranbrook School and served for 34 months in the Navy as a pharmacy mate 3rd class during World War II.

He is following a course in commercial art at Michigan State College at East Lansing.

EXTRA SPECIAL

Brightly-striped rayon jersey, perfect extra dress for the vacationer.

No matter how carefully you plan your vacation wardrobe, you always need an "extra" dress. A multi-colored striped jersey such as the one pictured above by a New York designer, will be a lifesaver on many spur-of-the-moment occasions. Its simple, casual lines can be dressed up or down, as required, with a wide variety of accessories. And it has the added virtue of practicality — nothing could be easier to pack and press.
