Now Firemen Can Ignore Falling Walls

A converted Sherman tank with water nozzles instead of a cannon goes into action as a fire-fighting machine to defy blazing aircraft or exploding ammunition. Known as an "ammunition" to revolutionize methods of combating the middle of the blaze with water foam, ignoring danger of falling walls.

Young Adults Plan Moonlight Excursion

Three young adult groups consisting of 24 members of the Shrine of the Little Flower, 1930 group of Birmingham (are 19 to 30) and Lathrup Township's Young Adult Group (age 18 to 30) have arranged for a Moonlight Excursion to Bois Blanc on Wednesday, July 30, at 9 p. m.

Tickets must be secured through committees in charge, and are obtainable in the townsite through Gordon Gray and Bob Diederich. Young people within that age bracket are urged to come.

The monthly dance will take place Saturday, July 26, at "The House in the Woods." Open house dates have been changed to each Friday evening instead of Thursdays.

Mrs. Lee E. Stovell of Delores avenue is at home after a two weeks' illness in Royal Oak hospital.

Barbara Cline of Saratoga boulevard, a riding enthusiast who is often seen cantering through the townsite, was unseated from her mount a week ago and she sustained a sprained ankle. The accident occurred just as the family was completing their packing in preparation for their departure on their summer vacation to Leamington, Ont.

Barbara and Marian Gray of San Jose drive returned recently from a 7,000-mile motor trip to the West Coast. They visited their aunt, Mrs. Ruth Pascoe of Hollywood while there. Marian Eberlie and Eloise Fahrman, both of Detroit, accompanied them.

The girls started their tour over the northern route but upon arriving at Estes Park found snow and cold weather so they rerouted themselves south. They visited Grand Canyon, Boulder Dam and Bryce Canyon and other points of interest. Marian was the driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knorr and daughter, Mary Ann, of Glenwood boulevard returned Saturday from a similar trip to the coast. They covered 8,000 miles and drove up the Redwood coast line to Portland, Ore., and were

Tennis Tournery Starts July 18

Entries are now open for the senior tennis tournament of Birmingham which will begin July 18 and anyone wishing to play should call the high school. Franklin Whitney, city recreational director, announced this week.

There is to be a women's and men's division and each contestant will be notified as to his or her next opponent, he said. The winner of each match must notify the recreation board at the high school within 24 hours after the contest.

Scheduled games must be played within three days or be forfeited. Games may be played on any of Birmingham's five courts or elsewhere.

A marble tournament will be held today at 2 p. m. at Barnum school. The contest is open to both boys and girls and the recreation board will furnish all marble.

Next Thursday will be a basketball tournament at Barnum and also a leather ball contest.

July 25 is the date set for the first open all-city outdoor basketball championship. Men and women should start practicing their teams on the Barnum court as soon as possible, Whitney stated.

Players may enter who have reached his 15th birthday. Each team is limited to eight players.

Livestock men have learned that spraying their cattle with DDT will keep down the fly population and allow the cattle to give more milk and to make faster gains.
