Today's Fantasy
 We can't vouch for the authenticity of this tale which comes from Britain.
 Two men, photographing big game in Africa, came upon a huge elephant sitting on a jungle trail. One of them whispered: "Let's circle him and photograph him when he gets up."
 As they maneuvered about the animal they ran smack into a second elephant sitting with his back to the first. The holder of the two men walked up to the creature and demanded: "How come you two are sitting back-to-back?"
 The elephant, surveying the man for a moment, remarked: "Don't shout so—I really mustn't sneeze; Josephine and I are playing book ends."

Only His Watch
 A well-to-do Negro had been ill for some time and showed no signs of improvement under treatment by a doctor of his own race. So presently he dismissed him and summoned a white man.
 The new doctor examined the patient and asked:
 "Did the other doctor take your temperature?"
 "I duzo, sah," he declared. "All I've missed so far is my watch."

MICHIGAN
 Believes in
More and Better Hospitals

In a progressive state such as Michigan, there is a constant need for the extension and expansion of hospital facilities. Good hospitals, geographically placed for the better convenience of all the people of Michigan, mean a healthier state in which to live—and it is characteristic of the doctors of medicine in Michigan that their leadership is applied in this direction. Your medical doctor is your watchdog and spokesman for the advancement of your health care through the furtherance of more abundant hospital accommodations. It is one of the reasons why Michigan leads the way in health progress.
