We would like to have some reactions on these two propositions so start thinking about them and let us know about it tonight.

We couldn't have asked for a better week end, how could we? We don't think anyone was any where near their home; maybe that accounts for the bathing beach stampede.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh.

The Picnic Was a "Hug" Success!

Our local Wild Life League went on a picnic Saturday, and I went along to cover it for the Clarion. Monday, folks kept stopping me, and saying: "Must have gotten out of hand, that picnic!"

"Nonsense," I says. "It was mighty pleasant and congenial. Just beer and hot dogs, cheese and cider." And then they show me the headline reading: "WILD WIFE PICNIC HUG SUCCESS."

Of course it was Elmer, my typewriter, who had made the misprints! But in my face read: "It's only because folks are so temperate and well-behaved in our town, that they don't afford to take the whole thing as a joke.

From where I sit, even a newspaper editor's entitled to a few mistakes. And since I reported that they served a moderate beverage like beer, I'm sure nobody thinks the picnic was the least bit wild, or anything but a huge success—and I mean hug!
