Local Girl Wed at Evening Rites June 26

In an evening ceremony last Thursday, June 26, at the First Baptist Church, Mary Frances Ring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ring of Stanley street, and Thomas Doyle Neuman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Neuman of Pontiac, exchanged their marriage vows before the Rev. Melvyn Crump.

The bride robes were fashioned with a bodice of white satin, and a skirt of chantilly lace, which ended in a cathedral length train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a high tiara of the illusion and seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and gardenias centered with two white orchids.

Patricia Dore, maid of honor, wore a blue net gown, fashioned in princess style with a very full skirt, while the bridesmaids, Jinx

Duncan, Barbara Pepperal, Julia Walk of Birmingham, and Mrs. Wendell Neuman, Jr., of Pontiac, wore off-the-shoulder taffeta gowns in different pastel colors; lime, light blue, lavender and pink, respectively.

All the girls wore matching tiaras, fashioned after the bride's, and carried bouquets of white peonies, yellow and lavender lilies.

Wendell Neuman, Jr., was his brother's best man, with Clifford B. Young of Birmingham and Jack Sharpe, Marvin Kunkle and Robert Kugler, all of Pontiac, as ushers.

A blue marquisette gown with a blue flowered hat and white accessories was worn by the bride's mother, while Mrs. Neuman chose a salmon pink gown and also the white accessories.

Mrs. Ring wore a corsage of pink roses, while the groom's mother had a white iris and white matron corsage.

Following a reception at the Community House, the young couple left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan. They will live at Square Lake.

Kent M. Hopkins Married Saturday

Kent M. Hopkins son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hopkins of Hervey road, at an afternoon ceremony in the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis, Ind., Saturday, June 28, married Marilyn Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Shaw of that city.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Thomas R. Purky, her sister, as matron of honor, and the groom's sister, Mary Hopkins, as maid of honor.

Mary and Marjorie Vaughn of Lafayette, Ind., and Alice Queen, and Lorna Durney, of Indianapolis were bridesmaids.

James W. Hopkins was his brother's best man, and ushers were William Emery Heintz, Kenzie of Ann Arbor, Charles Porter of Bay City, Thomas Hoffman of Birmingham, and Thomas Purky and Donald Shaw of Indianapolis.

The couple will live at 920 Eddy street in Flint.
