

63rd Milford Fair Opens Next Week

Next week, August 6-9 the 63rd Milford Fair will open its gates with educational, entertaining and thrilling events.

The Baum Cherokee Rodeo will play afternoon and evening performances along with Thrill Show acts each evening.

The Majestic Greater Shows with 12 major rides will be on the midway.

Kiddies' Day, Thursday and Championship Horse Pulling Contests Friday and Saturday, are planned for both young and old.

This year the fair will open its gates at Wednesday noon, August 6, with a gala parade.

Great men are very apt to have great faults; and the faults appear the greater by their contrast with excellencies.—Charles Simmons.

Travellers

Bob Sealy, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sealy of Glendale boulevard, is at Camp Westminster on Higgins Lake for a two weeks' vacation after which he will go to Ovid to visit relatives for two weeks. His sister, Sally, is now in Ovid and upon her return she will go to Camp Westminster for the same length of time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Slower of E. California drive, sponsors of the Youth Group activities of the townsite, are in the Porcupine mountains in the upper peninsula. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Iversen, Mr. and Mrs. George Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson will take over the sponsorship of the club, alternately. A moonlight excursion with the 20-Up club and the 15-10-30 Club of Birmingham took place last night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orth and mother, Mrs. Orth, and grandson Bobby, will leave Friday for East Tawas where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Den-con for a week. The Deacons' are the parents of Mrs. Orth Jr.

Roger Pepper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pepper of Saratoga boulevard, has been at Camp Ojibway Wis. the past six weeks. This is Roger's third year at the camp. Mr. and Mrs. Pepper and daughter, Carol, are going to Oceanide, N. Y. in August to visit relatives.

The Roger Bakera's of Lathrup boulevard have purchased a home in a Chicago suburb where Mr. Baker was recently transferred. They are vacationing at Long Lake, Alpena.

Mrs. Fred A. Wilson and daughters, Violet and Mary Lu, will spend the month of August at Long Lake near Alpena. Mrs. Carrie Hauss and daughter, Shirley, of the townsite will accompany them.

Mrs. Maurice Firth of Lathrup boulevard returned last week from a month's trip to the West Coast. While there she visited the Home Hodges, formerly of 10 Mile road, who recently moved to Brentwood, Calif. In early September Mr. Firth and son Jimmy will go to California on a business trip.

Jimmy Firth, and Doug Wiley are taking a plane trip this week in Jimmy's plane. Jimmy is a member of a college dining club which has purchased a plane collectively.

Mrs. H. O. Coucke of San Jose drive returned last week from a Montreal, Quebec, motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ahlers of Greenwood boulevard are at home after this week's trip through the east and the Smokey Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Deig and daughter and son, are in California this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Flemming and children are at home after a month's vacation spent at Grand Bend, Ont.

Fred A. Wilson of Lathrup boulevard has been chosen a member of the Advisory Board for rent controls of Oakland County.

The Jean Gidley Camp fund is being established by Scouts of Southfield, to honor their friends, in memory of Jean Gidley, Scout leader who was killed Thursday evening, June 17, by a car which she failed to see after alighting from a school bus following a scout rehearsal program at Smithman Camp.

The fatal accident happened almost directly in front of her home on 26255 Schiawasse avenue. Mrs. Gidley was an instructor in Scout activities as well as a Scout leader, and it was through her efforts that the Scout program was arranged as well as a Scout leader, and it was through her efforts that the Scout program was arranged following a six day session at Camp Smithman.

The Memorial Fund will be used to send girl scouts to camp and through training courses. Any one interested may send contributions to Mrs. Bradbury, 24500 Inkster road, Farmington. Mrs. Bradbury is president of Girl Scout Council.

The Glen Reitzel home on Rainbow drive was struck by lightning July 18th and a five-foot hole ripped through the roof. The fire department was called but no other damage resulted from the storm.

Charlotte Schrimmer of the townsite won third prize with 101 points in the Archery Tournament held at Girl Scout Day Camp. First prize went to Marian Eastman of Midway avenue and second prize was awarded to Margaret Robertson, also of Midway avenue.

Acting Adjutant

John E. Eckenrode, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckenrode, 248 Argyll, has been acting battalion adjutant at the Fort Riley ROTC Camp, Fort Riley, Kan., according to an army release. He is a student at Michigan State College.

Kitty, Kitty!

Miriam—Really, you must go to Wasaga beach for your holidays. I won a beauty contest there last year.

Elsie—I think I'd rather go to a more crowded place.

Long, steepled and full-skirted—Helena Barbieri assigned this young summer dancing dress for juniors in Hope Skelton's finely striped cotton madras. The pasteur and graceful skirt below a tightly held bodice are reminiscent of colonial America.

Newspaper, Radio Station Visited By Boys from 'Y'

Accompanied by Ed Kierbert of the local 'Y', the following boys—Jimmy Bernard, Dick Goggie, Wayne Guggie, Tommy Harris, Robert Hunter, Bobby Jackson, Wayne Jones, Tommy Kaiser, Gordon Mutch, Harvey Swift, Robert Mansfield, John Cox, Allan Fawcett, Syd Fawcett, Clark Hallas, Dick Dutton, Mickey Hartkopf, Donald Keesner, James Strouther, Tom Clark, Bud Brown, Ray Buff, Larry Beers, Neil Ege, Thompson Tharria, David Power, Donald Chaffee, Bill Leckie, Bob Mangrove, John Hickman, and Howard Poote were guests of Hugh White on a conducted tour Tuesday through the Detroit News and Station WJL.

All marveled at the huge presses in operation and the constant flow of material from the plant and editorial desks through various processes to the finished newspaper.

Watching radio engineers at work and seeing a radio broadcast go out over the airways was a first for many of the youngsters going through the radio station.

Kierbert announced that the next trip will be a visit to Briggs Stadium on August 9 to see Detroit play the Chicago White Sox. Reservations may be made by calling 124.
