

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McCreary of Washington, D. C. announce the birth of a son, Walter James, who was born May 29, 1947. Mr. McCreary is the former Mayor of Birmingham.

The Rev. and Mrs. William P. Richardson, Jr., of Lexington announce the birth of a son, William Thomas Latham, born June 2, Mrs. Richardson is the former Mary G. Latham of Birmingham.

B-7 Court of Honor

Troop B-7 of Pierce School will hold their court of honor on June 16, in the Pierce School Gym between 7:00 and 9:30 p. m.

The boys will receive their Star award and advancement.

Cubs and parents are urged to attend this final meeting. Refreshments will be served.

A Glorious Moment Long To Be Remembered But . . .

The Real Thrill Is When she serves guests in her own home the unforgettable Beauty of her

STERLING SILVER.

Represented by Four Magic Names:

International . . . Lunt . . . Gorham and Towle

A matchless gift for June Brides. The gift of enduring beauty and quality. Many other lovely gift things for June Brides.

The "Sterling" Store of Birmingham

LLOYD L. LAKE

JEWELER

47 WEST MAPLE AVE. PHONE 4127

Extended Payments . . . No Carrying Charge

ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PATRONS OF THE BANKS OF BIRMINGHAM

BEGINNING JUNE 18, 1947 AND CONTINUING THROUGH SEPTEMBER 24, 1947, OUR BUSINESS HOURS ON WEDNESDAYS WILL BE FROM NINE A.M. TO TWELVE NOON.

THIS SUMMER CHANGE IS UNDERTAKEN IN THE INTEREST OF OUR EMPLOYEES AND IS IN LINE WITH PRACTICE WHICH IS EXTENDING THROUGHOUT THE NATION.

WE SHALL APPRECIATE THE COOPERATION OF OUR CUSTOMERS IN ADJUSTING THEIR BANKING REQUIREMENTS TO THIS CHANGE.

WABEEK STATE BANK

THE BIRMINGHAM NATIONAL BANK

BIRMINGHAM FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

Students from the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area, who received diplomas at the commencement exercises of Kingswood School Cranbrook on Saturday are photographed before the wall at the school on which the names of graduating classes have been carved. Back row (L. to R.) Barbara Zeder, Sally Kemp, Beverly Whiting, Susan Anderson, Helen Green and Margo Yaw. (Front row) Marcia Wanta, Clara Gordon, Jean McGregor, Phyllis Bartholomew, Marcia Helwig and Nancy Turaball.

Mrs. C. Shain
President of FPA of Detroit

Mrs. Charles Shain of Pierce street was unanimously elected new president of the Foreign Policy Association of Detroit and Canadian Affiliates, when that organization held its annual meeting at the new West Maple avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Garrison.

Mrs. Shain was elected the first woman president of the group in recognition of her long service as first vice-president, a position which she has held for twenty years. Giving much of her time and effort, she also assisted in founding this branch of the FPA and interesting many Canadians, including the honorable Paul Martin of Windsor and Ottawa, and Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan who is now honorary chairman of this group.

Miss Evangeline Purcell will serve as 1st vice-president, having previously served as chairman of the student membership and representing the organization in many civic cooperative endeavors.

F. G. Garrison, an engineer who has spent many years in Europe and South America and who has recently returned from an extensive tour of Brazil, was elected 2nd vice-president.

Mrs. Philip H. Freys was elected 3rd vice-president. She has spent many summers in the Balkans and more recently in Mexico, and is now serving as state chairman of the Foreign Policy for the League of Women Voters.

Walter Gleason, long prominent in public relations with the Detroit Board of Education, will serve as executive secretary, after having served as Detroit delegate to the National Foreign Policy Conventions in NCY; and Allan B. Lutz, lawyer, recently a special assistant to the attorney general in Washington and active in the FPA of both New York City and Washington, will serve as treasurer.

New board members and committee chairmen will be announced soon.

Those members of the North Woodward suburban group who were hosts for the day at the annual meeting included the Paul L. Penfields, the William W. Williams, Dr. and Mrs. John K. Ormond, Mrs. Shirley Johnston, the R. S. Plexicos, the Karl Grimms, the Karl Grimms, Jr., the Winston Kelloggs, the Leonard Lewises, the Alan Lufzes, the Philip H. Pretzels, Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Graeffe, the Frank N. Eddys, the Howard Cousins, Dr. and Mrs. John C. Balkey, the Larry S. Davidsons, the Charles Shains and the Garisons.

FIRST IN BIRMINGHAM TELEVISION TO BE SEEN AT LEONARD'S—223 W. Maple

Seniors of Kingswood School Cranbrook received their diplomas on Saturday, 3 p.m. at Christ Church Cranbrook. Invocation was offered by the Reverend William S. Hill, Assistant Minister, Christ Church Cranbrook, Frank L. Hunley, Ph.D., Associate Professor of English and Secretary of the Barbour Scholarship Committee, University of Michigan. The Reverend Charles H. Augur, Headmistress of Kingswood School Cranbrook and the President of the Senior Class, made the address. Diplomas were awarded by Miss Margaret A. Hymn, the Reverend Charles H. Cadigan, Rector, Christ Church Cranbrook offered prayer, which was followed by the singing of America. The Right Reverend Richard S. M. Emrich, Ph.D., Suffragan Bishop of Michigan pronounced the Benediction.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS.

Home for her summer vacation after completing her freshman year at Michigan State College is Lois Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson C. Brown of Floyd street.

Also home for her summer vacation is Phyllis Masterton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Masterton of Madison avenue, who has completed her freshman studies at Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

From Boulder, Colorado, comes Dorothy Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill C. Adams of Kennewash road, who has also finished her freshman year of college. She is a student at the University of Colorado.

Catherine Houssel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Houssel of Bryn Mawr road, has returned home for the summer after spending a week in New York. She has completed her freshman studies at Randolph Macon Women's College at Lynchburg, Va.

To Graduate

Richard Wood Eustis of Birmingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Eustis of Linden road, is a candidate for the bachelor of chemical engineering degree at Cornell University's 79th annual commencement Monday, June 16.

Dine Delightfully AT

Twin Hearth Inn

—Luncheon Parties Invited—

It's delightful at Twin Hearth in Springtime. Country air and country fare at its best in this charming New England type inn with its quaint Early American furnishings.

Notice our wider variety of menus and prices—but with our same delicious, country style cooking, done by woman cooks—home made hot rolls and pastries—super quality steaks and chickens.

—Bob Seelye, Host

We are now serving both luncheons and dinners

WHEN—Luncheons Daily except Monday and Sunday, 12 to 2:30. Dinners daily except Mondays, 5 to 8. Sundays 2 to 7.

WHERE—Drive out Maple Road to Pontiac Trail and turn right one mile to the Inn.

Don't Mind the Detour—Drive down 13 Mile Road or Lenox Pike Road. Maple Road is under repair. 1710 Pontiac Trail, Phone Walled Lake 205-F12.

PRICES—Luncheons $1.25 to $2.00. Full course dinners $1.50 to $2.75.

List Candidates For Degrees at U of M Saturday

Candidates for degrees from the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills area at the University of Michigan's 103rd commencement, which will be held Saturday, June 14, at Ferry Field are as follows:

Robert Edwin Beers, 245 Arlington road, bachelor of science in engineering-mechanical; Elizabeth Ann Bloomstrom, 148 Pilgrim road, bachelor of arts in education; Philip Breitmeier, 11, 832 Madison, bachelor of arts; Donald Arthur Cabell, 431 Westchester Way, bachelor of business administration; Phyllis Marjorie Chapel, 247 Oakland avenue, bachelor of arts; Mary Frances Corbet, Route 1, bachelor of science; Edwin Lloyd Coventry, 821 Westwood drive, bachelor of science in engineering, naval architecture and marine engineering; and Constantine Dorothy Colter English, 290 Lake Park drive, bachelor of music (violin).

Others from Birmingham are Robert Peter Foley, 888 Madison avenue, bachelor of arts; William Frank Grimselman, 339 Paritane road, bachelor of science in engineering-industrial mechanical; Barbara Jean Hamel, 381 Wellesley drive, bachelor of arts; Robert Keppel Hancez, 415 Harmon road, bachelor of arts; James Hill Harbort, 972 Oxford, bachelor of arts; Max Bailey Horton, Jr., 787

Completing those from this city are Paul Ruesch Moffett, 139 W. Maple avenue, bachelor of architecture; Carl William Sanders, 165 N. Woodward, bachelor of business administration; Glenn E. Ward, White, Charing Cross road, master of business administration; Nevel Ware Wright, 260 Rockwell, 165 E. Hickory Grove road, master of science in engineering-mechanical.

Those from Bloomfield Hills who are candidates for degrees are Vernon Chabburton Gens, Lone Pine Court, bachelor of science in engineering-industrial mechanical; and Deane Milos Rockwell, 165 E. Hickory Grove road, master of science in engineering.

MATTHEW'S CLEANERS

244 E. MAPLE

Cash and Carry or Call For and Deliver

Phone 9011 or 2895

We operate our own cleaning plant in Birmingham.

HAPPY is the BRIDE and GROOM

And they'll be happier still if their gifts are selected from the lovely ones to be found at . . .

La Belles

137 WEST MAPLE

Birmingham's Shop of Gifts, Books and Stationery

For the great out-of-doors, and for your cottage:

SUMMER WARE

Spring is in the air; soon now it will be summer! And so we bring you Country Ware for porch use, out-of-door entertaining, the cottage—or the recreation room, for that matter.

Mugs, casseroles, pitchers—Country Ware in brown and green. Hadley Ware in decorated blues in country designs. Stangl Ware with tulip, flower and fruit designs.

And this is all oven ware to withstand the heat when your special out-door dishes demand oven preparation.

A New Shipment of Summer Furniture Has Just Arrived

La Belles

137 WEST MAPLE

Birmingham's Shop of Gifts, Books and Stationery