

Students of F. Protheroe To Give Recital

Frederick A. Protheroe of Hanna street will present a number of artist students in a recital Sunday afternoon at 5:00 p.m. in the Community House auditorium.

Of interest to Birminghamites will be the appearance of Mrs. James S. Moon of this city and Mrs. Harold Sherman of Royal Oak, both members of St. James choir, and James M. Troy, who has been substituting in the First Presbyterian choir.

Miss Fay Doby will begin her work as soprano soloist in the First Presbyterian quartet July 1, and Mrs. John Craig is contralto soloist at this church.

The presentation of Liza Lehmann's cycle, "In a Persian Garden", will form the second half of the program.

Gail Fairchild Bangs, former Birmingham resident and organist of St. James Church, and Betty Pearce of Royal Oak, will be accompanists.

Mr. and Mrs. Protheroe will entertain guests at a buffet supper at their home after the concert.

BENDIX automatic Home Laundry

DOES ALL THE WORK!

You set a dial—add soap—Bendix does the rest. Bendix washes, rinses three times, damp dries, and shuts itself off! Bendix is the only automatic washer that's been performing these washday miracles for nine whole years! There's no question about Bendix—it's been proved in use.

Maybe you'd like to see just what this washday wonder does, how it gets your complete washing done without you using a finger—then come in today for a demonstration. It is probable that you will want your Bendix quickly, and we'll both be pleased if you are one of our "first-to-be-served!"

Bendix uses less hot water for doing your wash than any other washing method. Consequently, it uses less soap, giving you a considerable saving. Our demonstrator will show you exactly how it does this.

Bendix Deluxe Model is $249.50
Bendix Standard Model—$229.50
