Chairmen of the affair were Mrs. Louis B. Hyde and Mrs. Edward S. Coe of Detroit.

Want Books for Annual AAUW Book Sale

Date for the annual American Association of University Women's Book sale will be from October 19 through the 18th, it was announced by the chairman of the sale, Mrs. Hans Schjolin.

People cleaning their attics this summer are asked to donate their books to the sale, and a need for old records, sheet music, magazines and games as well as the old books, has been expressed.

Those having articles to donate are asked to contact Mrs. William Milligan, solicitation chairman, 454 Fairfax, who will arrange to have articles picked up.

The lobby of the Detroit Edison Company will again be the site of the sale, marking the fourth year that it has been held in this location.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

Two local girls, Sandra DaSaf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace DaSaf of Warren Court and Mrs. Eckenrode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckenrode of Argyle boulevard will complete their junior year at Monticello College, Alto, Ill., June 8.

Cadet Stanley E. Reinhardt, Jr., of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., arrived here a week ago to spend his summer furlough with his parents, Major General and Mrs. Stanley E. Reinhardt of Madison avenue. He has just completed his plebe year and was given a furlough from graduation day until June 30, when he is to report back at the Academy.

Among the 135 recipients of special scholarships at the University of Illinois were Suzanne Ackerman Burnside of Lakeview drive and Patricia A. Price of Oakland boulevard. Both the girls received Laverne Noyes scholarships.

Barbara Brenkert, 928 Covington road, is one of sixteen students who leave next week for a six weeks' course in Mexico. Enrolled in either seminar in Mexican history or studio courses in art, the students will leave St. Louis Mo. June 12, go by bus to Mexico City in Texas. After a short stay in Mexico City, the group will go to San Miguel Allende, 200 miles from the capital and 500 miles south of the border.

Mary Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Bull of Linden road, was elected to Phi Theta Kappa, national junior honorary society, it was announced at the last meeting of the year of the society at Frances Shiner College, Mount Carroll, Ill.

Barbara Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich E. Ulrich of 285 Hawthorne, graduated Monday, June 2, from Pembroke School in Glen Arbor, Mich. She received her diploma from the National Honor Society and also an award for the outstanding girl of 1947, regarding character and personality. Barbara hopes to attend the University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt. in the fall.

Auxiliary Rummage Sale in Last Day

Today is the last day of the American Legion Auxiliary to the Charles Edwards Post No. 14 Rummage Sale, which is being held at the Legion Home at 268 S. Woodward.

Proceeds from the sale will go to "Billets," a home which is dedicated to the care of indigent children of living and dead veterans of World War I and II. The home is completely maintained by the American Legion and its auxiliaries in Michigan.

Chairman of the sale is Mrs. Amelia Mohr, assisted by Mrs. Kathryn Anderson and Mrs. Peggy Martin.

Other auxiliary news is the Department of Michigan Convention which will be held at the Statler July 3 through July 6.

Delegates to the convention from Birmingham are Mrs. Emily K. Wade and Mrs. Bernice Colbert with Mrs. Mohr as Miss Agnes Baines as alternates.

A new electric "eye" that will improve the taste, texture and appearance of food products, it is a finding answers to problems that have baffled food technologists for years.

Illinois Bride In Sunday Ceremony

At the McKinley Memorial Presbyterian church in Champaign, Ill., Sunday, Robert A. Woolley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Woolley of Birmingham, in a double ring ceremony married Margaret H. Munhall, daughter of Mrs. Maurice H. Munhall of that city.

Following the informal ceremony, at which the bride was wearing a street length dress of pale blue embroidered eyelet with a small hat trimmed with pastel flowers and a corsage of pink carnations, a reception took place in the church parlors.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Woolley left for Detroit, with the bride wearing a light gray gabardine suit with a matching gray hat and white accessories for traveling.

The couple will make their home after June 9 at 504 Stoughton street in Champaign.

Present at the ceremony besides the groom's parents was his sister, Gerrie Woolley, also of Birmingham.

The bride graduated from Deer River high school in Minnesota, attended the University of Illinois, and was graduated from the Julia F. Burnham school of nursing, Ill. high school, served as a first lieutenant in the army air forces in the African and European theaters. He is now a student in the College of Law at the University of Illinois.

Adams Cub Pack to Hold Annual Picnic

Concluding this year's events the annual pack picnic and ceremonial fire will be held Saturday, June 14, at 3:00 p. m. in Springdale Park.

A series of athletic races and contests by age groups has been planned in addition to the championship softball game which starts at 3:00 o'clock.

E. D. Butch and E. K. Leavenworth, co-chairmen of the picnic, assisted by the den dads and a group of fathers, will be the judges of the various events.

Prizes will be awarded individual cubs and the den with the most points will receive the pack pennant.

Following the picnic supper, a grand council fire with full ceremonial will be held under the direction of Forrest B. Hubert, cubmaster, Paul D. Casper, ceremonial chairman, and James Cox, pack committee chairman.

Final awards for the school year will be given to cubs who have passed achievements since the March ceremonial.

Club Notes

The Embury Women's Division will meet with Mrs. Fred McCullough of Bird street next Thursday, June 19, at 2 p. m.

The Order of the Eastern Star's "Friendship Night" will be held Wednesday, June 18, at the Masonic Temple. Initiations will take place at this time.
