First trip scheduled is for next Tuesday, June 24, when Gray-Y's will go to the Detroit Zoo to spend the day; and that will be followed by a trip to Briggs stadium, June 28, by chartered bus, when groups will see the Tigers play the St. Louis Cardinals.

This Saturday, June 21, all three clubs will hike out to Cranbrook to visit the Art Museum and Institute of Science. July 8 is set aside for a hike and cook-out at Springdale Park, and July 11 will have the clubs seeing another Tiger game at Briggs Stadium when the Boston Red Sox will be the visitors.

Greenfield Village is to be visited July 15, with the group again leaving by chartered bus. Visits to Radio Station WWJ, White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, and other adventures feature the program which starts June 23 and extends to August 2.
