Sports Showup

By Harry Bisset Jr.
Bill Gelling, one of Hilldale's star hurlers, completed the baseball season with one win, two defeats and a variety letter. Pitching with the Hilldale summer league, he is off to a flying start, allowing Pittsford only one hit.
The June class of '47 takes with it many outstanding athletes.
Golf loses Captain John Anderson, Pete Whitlaw and Jack Moses; baseball: Captain Bill Kindley, Vic Hadley, Bruce Smiley and Jack Filkins; tennis: Captain Ralph Dunbar, Dave Ballentine, John Bones and Ted Laird; football: Co-captain John Anderson, Chuck Murray, Drayton McClelland, Jack Filkins, Jack Hardy, Bruce Smiley, Chuck Dunn, Jim Carson, Joe Bowen, George Pope and John Bones; cross country: Captain Joe Fluister, Jack McBride and Rodney Smith.
Basketball will miss all-state Captain Chuck Murray, Drayton McClelland, Stan Schaefer, Jack Moses, and Jack Filkins.
The League and regional track champs lost Captain Jan Fluister, Chuck Murray, Duane Murphy, Jack McBride, Jim Carson, Joe Bowen, Rodney Smith, Harry Sugar and Bud Worde.
The golf team certainly appreciated the use of the Birmingham Country Club this season and wants to thank the members for this courtesy.

Vacation Trips, Shares of Stock, New Cars Are Among Graduation Gifts

By Dick Jeffers
As a climax to three years of the most important period in life, the gifts given to a high school graduate is an unforgettable mark of achievement as well as sentiment.
Members of the June '47 graduation class received many original and different presents.
A few received trips to places of interest in the country.
For instance, Bob Stringer has made plans to travel to Isle Royale this summer for 11 days in the same time but different direction. Jeanne Lange receives a trip to California.
Gifts of Bank Stock
In a class by itself, six shares in the Birmingham National Bank is indeed an original and valuable gift for Kit Schiele.
The Ford in her future became a reality when Joan Jodan was the recent recipient of a 1947 Ford coupe.
Several boys and girls were presented with luggage, a useful commodity for college and other excursions. These include Mary Betts, Ruth Kadell, Ray Bates, Vincent Hayes, Betty Jane Young, Florence Dugger, Nancy Keyes and Jack Fluister.

Final GAA Tournaments Played This Week

Finals in GAA tournaments were played of this week leaving Betty Jane Young holding the winning title in archery, Sherill Wilkinson in tennis and Marilyn Davey and Peg Baldwin in badminton.
Martha Moody came in a close second in archery. Pat Shiner made the semi-finals in tennis and Mary Gilbert and Mary Stringer in badminton.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

By Annie
The seniors started their week end early by enjoying a picnic and a wonderful spin day to Bolo Island.
Friday night some of the gang got together out at Fritz Weid's house. Some we saw were Bob Watts, Jerry Neff, Aubrey Jones, Don Hoge, Parker Bogue, Don Elgdon, Dick Groves, Dave Baldwin, Gerry Hughes, Lee Daly, Jack Hardy and Joe Bowen.
Don't get the idea it was a stag party because here are some of the dates: Marilyn Davies, Bud Worde, Pat Griffin, Chuck Dunn, Pat Hempstead, Kirk George, Mary Powers and Stan Blummen.
Barb Fox entertained at her house with a party for Pat Daly, Fred Jeffers, Mary Taylor, Dick Steelman, G. J. Maxwell, Bob Jessup, Dawn Haugan and dance Dick Ernst, Nancy Hall, Andy Baringham, Barb Forster, Watts Wacker, Les Bargar, John Keifer, Janice Thomas and Harry Bissett. Barb's date was Tom Blummen.
On the agenda for Saturday night was an open house at the Roosevelt abode. The walls bulged, and some of the people we managed to contact were Shirley Mainland, Mike Maloney, Pat Sander, Jimmy Rotaford, Sylvia Bobbin, Tubby O'Brien, Nancy Keyes, Bob Joyce, Phyllis Moore, Tom Spiegel, Joan Pascher, Howie Breslin, Nan Gilbrath, Pete Gahn, Lois Brown, Bob Corahan, Janet Roosevelt, Johnny Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gollins.
At Carmela Caputo's open house we saw Lois Patterson, Eleanor Murray, Mary Pool, Florence Dugger, Barbara Pepperell, Kit Schiele, Bruce Smiley, George Halpin, and dates Kerry Kiro, Bruce McClintock, Gwen Flynn, Bob Shafer, Lois Burton, Jerry Neff, Jo Flues, Bill Shalberg, Hank Strout, Jack McBride, and oodles and oodles more.
Good luck over the summer, kids.
See ya next fall!

Interschool Constitution for EML Members Results from Baldwin Conference

By Dick Adams
The student political leaders of Fernside, Hazel Park and Port Huron met in Birmingham last week to derive an interschool constitution for the Eastern Michigan Congress of Student Governments.
This was the second meeting of the constitution committee, the previous work having been laid the previous week at a Fernside session.
The purpose of the organization, composed of Eastern Michigan League schools, is to strengthen relations between schools and create greater understanding among the student bodies.
Hold Conferences
Each school drew up a constitution, and from these the committee evolved the final form acceptable to the organization.
Assembling in the Hill School conference room, the delegations, comprised of two student representatives and one advisor from each school, settled down to work under chairman Dick Adams.
After deliberating for an hour and a half the policy formers recessed for dinner. Following dinner, a three-hour session saw the work completed.
Fall Convention Here
Through the political skill of Jim Mildebrandt and Fred Malender, local representatives, approximately two-thirds of Birmingham's constitution was used in the main structure.
Everybody is looking forward to next fall's convention at Birmingham when the constitution will go into effect.
The Maple's constitution committee was composed of Doc Plant, Austin Jones, Fred Malender, Jim Mildebrandt and Dick Adams, under the advisement of Mrs. Carol Darling.

Marilyn Hart Wins Barnum Student Congress Election

Barnum Junior High School's Student Council election was held Thursday, June 12. Campaign dates and each campaign manager had a carefully prepared kit.
Marilyn Hart, a popular 8th grade student and daughter of the late Mrs. Melvin C. Hart of Villa Rough, was elected president, defeating David Beatty and William Wilkinson in a very close decision.
Barry Harper was elected vice president and was opposed by Marilee Kelmert and Janice Porter. Gwen Steele defeated Stuart Scheifele for the office of secretary.
Attraction Posters
Connie Whitney is the new treasurer after close balloting with Charles Adams and Jack Hooper.
The voting took place in the homerooms immediately following the assembly. Many attractive posters were displayed in the halls previous to the election.
Miss Gladys Rogers is the faculty advisor for the group.
The retiring officers are Richard Shalberg, Bob Hardy, Mary Hopkins and Ed Matus.
A luncheon was held Monday noon in the school cafeteria for all the present members of the student council and honoring the new officers.
Dick Adams, president of the Baldwin Student Council, was the speaker for the group.
Even where forests grow most rapidly, twenty years are required to grow a tree suitable for pulpwood; forty to seventy years to grow a tree large enough for a sawlog.

Ann Lundberg Name New GAA President

At the annual GAA banquet Devoa Gabler yesterday new officers were announced.
Heading activities next year will be Ann Lundberg as president with Gerry Woolley, vice-president, Ginny Schaefer, secretary, Marilyn Davey, treasurer; Jack Van Wagener, intramural manager, and Barbara Hughes, historian.
Miss Alice Roulet is GAA adviser.
