The Museum of the Cranbrook Academy of Art, Bloomfield Hills, is showing an exhibition of 53 prints by Georges Rouault. Etchings, both black and white, and color, and lithographs have been selected by the Museum of Modern Art from its collection.

Many of the prints are unique examples of trial proofs which were never published and reproduced.

You should see the Smiths these days! The clothes they wear, as well as their car, sharp look that can come only with the most expert kind of ironing.

Mrs. Smith says that pressing's no problem with her new electric iron—especially since she asked an Edison Home Service Advisor to show her the fine points of its use. Thanks to her half-hour demonstration, Mrs. Smith now whips through a pile of work like a professional. At ease in her chair, with no steam to bother her, she can do shirts and even suits without a speck of trouble.

Like Mrs. Smith, you'll find that a visit from a Home Service Advisor can often be helpful. Whether your question's about an appliance or lighting—kitchen arrangement or recipes—the Home Service Advisor can tell you of ways to make household tasks easier. Simply call RANdolph 2100 and ask for Home Service.

The Golden Rule (G.R.) is: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God: this is the first and greatest commandment, and the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (Matt. 22:37-39)
The Golden Rule is the basis of the Christian Science movement. It is the foundation of the new religion, and it is the basis of the new era of the world. It is the basis of the new era of the world. It is the basis of the new era of the world.
