Kingswood Commencement To Be Saturday

The faculty of Kingswood School will entertain the seniors at breakfast today at the faculty club. Following the breakfast the senior class will hold their Class Day program at which they will give a skit, a parody of the Kingswood Catalogue, and present the class will.

At this time they will also present their year book, The Woodwinds, to the school. Tomorrow evening the junior class will entertain the seniors at a formal dinner which is served by the sophomore class.

Following the dinner will be the Kingswood Spring Formal. These on the dance committee are Ann Faulkner, Shirley Walker, Patricia Chase, Martha Lou, Lucia Crane, Jean McGregor, Elaine Newhall, Mary Stone and Beverly Whiting.

The commencement exercises will be held at Christ Church Cranbrook this Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is by invitation only and will be followed by a tea at the school for the guests and the student body and their parents.

MaryLane Vinton Chooses June 26 For Wedding Date

The marriage date of former Birminghamite, MaryLane Vinton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Presswood Vinton of "Laneden" at Holly, Mich., has been set for Thursday, June 26, at 11 o'clock in Fenton.

She is to be the bride of Jack Burks Obenshain III, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan Obenshain of Fenton, Mich., and Georgetown, Ky.

MaryLane has asked her sister Corvella, to be her only attendant, and the bridegroom has asked his father to be his best man.

The ushers will be the groom's brother, Robert Obenshain; the bride's brother, Donald Vinton, Jr.; Lawrence Myrtinger of Fenton and Robert Wallace Ward of Georgetown, Ky.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Virginia Fellows Speaks Marriage Vows at St. James

St. James Episcopal Church was the scene of the wedding rites of Virginia Lee Fellows and Robert C. Wadell II on May 27, with the Rev. Harold Towne reading the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Fellows of Fernside street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Wadell of Highland Park.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of white marquisette, with a design in white satin leaves applied on the bodice, the bishop sleeves, and the front of the skirt. The full skirt of marquisette ended in a short train.

Her finger ring of illusion was held in place by a bandeau of satin, and the bride wore a veil of white tulle and pillbox.

Mrs. Frank L. Cavan Jr., as matron of honor, wore a dress of blue tulle with a matching handbag and carried deep lilacs with trailing vines.

The two other attendants, Mrs. Alfred L. Bishop of Chicago and Mrs. James K. Gilliam of Lakewood, O., wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor, and their bouquets were of pale lavender lilacs.

Kenneth Wadell was his brother's best man and Frank W. Thorpe of Bay City and Charles Peterson of Highland Park were ushers.

Mrs. Fellows chose a draped gown of electric blue silk jersey fashioned with long sleeves. Her hat was of matching blue and line quality, and her carriage was a spray of orchids.

Grey crepe was worn by the groom's mother, and her carriage of spray orchids matched her hat of pink poppies.

Immediately following the reception at the Oakland Hills Country Club, the newlyweds left for a boat trip to Toronto and the Thousand Islands.

Mrs. Wadell chose an aqua dressmaker suit for her going away ensemble with which she wore a brown topcoat and brown accessories. Her carriage was of spray orchids.

The couple are now at home at their apartment on Buena Vista avenue in Detroit.
