Four Girls Tell Truth This Week

Janice Ha Sewell
Ethel L. Pravel
Helen Gardner Sprague
Dolores Rae Rogers

The engagement of Janice Ha Sewell to Emanuel L. George, son of Mrs. M. L. George of Los Angeles, Calif., and the late Mr. George, is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Douglas Sewell of Bloomfield Court.

The wedding will take place in California August 14, and following a honeymoon at Carmel-by-the-Sea, the couple will make their home at Los Angeles.

Herman Pravel of Inkster road announces the engagement of his daughter, Ethel L. to Roy L. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lewis of Cedar drive.

A graduate of Lincoln High School, the bride-elect studied at the Detroit Institute of Musical Art and is now studying under Margaret Pelison Miesse of Cleveland.

Her fiancé graduated from Baldwin High School and will attend Wayne University in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sprague of Big Beaver road announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Gardner, to William Harold Robertson. He is the son of Mrs. Ethel Robertson of Hickory road and the late Mr. Richard Robertson.

Helen is a graduate of Baldwin High School, while her fiancé graduated from Log Cabin High School.

July 19 has been set as the date of the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Rogers of Wallace street announce the betrothal of their daughter, Dolores Rae, to Raymond F. Zeulke, son of Matthews A. Zeulke of Roy Oak.

The bride-elect graduated from Baldwin High School and her fiancé attended Oak High School before serving in the Navy for 3 1/2 years.

The couple plan an October wedding.

The weather hasn't been too nice for our weekly Sunday baseball games. We hope you all won't be disappointed and give up. Remember, if the weather is nice next Sunday we still meet at Pierce Field at 2 p. m.

The golf-weather has also been very bad and doesn't look too promising. From what we've heard from Tom Williams, the Club's pro, one's very apt to lose several golf balls in the mud and slush, because when they hit they hit hard and bury themselves.

Mrs. Garrison, the very interesting speaker of last Tuesday, will be back again soon, we hope, to finish her talk on South America. She really didn't have time enough to elaborate on any one subject. We had a very nice crowd that night and it was a very enjoyable evening.

Everything is pretty confidential about the games on for this month, but we hear that Tuesday, June 10, is going to be a swell night, with fun for everyone. This changeable weather makes it rather hard for anyone to know just what to plan and when to plan it.

The ping-pong tournament will start tonight and here are just a few of the people who will compete: Liz Giles, Fred Van, Jim Auchterlonie, Al Larson, Charlie Martz, Bob Cavan, Ginny Walsh, and Lillian Dolin.

Last Tuesday was the box social. Guess the boys really went for it in a big way—they all acted as though they hadn't had a bite of food for two weeks. The lunches were wrapped in really colored papers as an incentive for the boys to make their bids higher.

Elmer Meeker is heading the committee for this month and some of his helpers are Liz Giles, Alice Roulet and Milton Berr.

Eight out of every 25 civilian employees of the Navy Department are veterans according to a recent survey.

Garden Club "Fair" to Be Held June 16

Plans are rolling along at great speed for the "Garden Fair" which the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association are staging June 16 at the home of Mrs. John E. Goodman, 757 Pleasant street.

An extra allotment of tickets for interested persons are reported on sale by Mrs. Edward S. Wallace, 20500 Langer Road, and all other committee chairmen.

This gala day opens at 12 noon, with lunch available from 1 until 2:30. Light refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

A special feature of the "Garden Fair" is the arts and crafts market, headed by Mrs. Robert F. Watt who reports an interesting display of ceramics, silver paintings and weaving by local artists to be on sale that day.

The "newest things in garden tools and accessories will add interest to the market.

SOIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon.
