To Graduate

Michigan State College
Ruth Joann Minks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Minks of Henrietta street, will graduate Friday, June 6, from Michigan State College with a Bachelor of Music Degree. She has accepted a position as music supervisor in Upland, Calif. public schools, starting in September.

Monticello College
Miss Barbara Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Fry, Vaughn road, will be graduated from Monticello June 8. She was the winner of the Horsemanship Award in the spring horse show at that college.

Smith College
Miss Margaret J. Codd, daughter of Mr. Margaret S. Biggers of Old Salem Court, is candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the 69th Smith College commencement, which will be held June 16.

Prepared for college at Kingswood school, Miss Codd majored in geography at Smith and hopes to do research in this field after graduation. She has been a member of the Geology club, and her outside interests have been in certain musical activities such as the Freshman choir, the glee club, and the "Smiffenpoofs."

She has played on her class hockey team for three years and has been chairman of one of the committees for the student recreational council. Last year she was one of 136 juniors chosen to assist at commencement as junior usher, based on the contributions they have made to college life.

University of Illinois
A candidate for a degree in civil engineering at the University of Illinois is Harry T. Teshima of Hillview Lane. The 76th annual commencement of the college will take place June 8.

Culver Military Academy
Cadet James W. Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Manning of Puritan road, and Cadet John R. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore of North Cranbrook road, are among the 180 cadets who are scheduled to receive diplomas at Culver Military Academy at the annual graduation exercises to be held June 10.

Cadet Manning, a sergeant in the Infantry ROTC organization, was member of the elite Honor Guard, an exhibition unit. He received varsity letters in baseball and squash.

Cadet Moore, was a member of the Black Horse Troop. An outstanding horseman, he was a member of the polo team during the past four years.

Wellesley College
Miss Jean Elizabeth Grindley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Grindley of Puritan road is among the candidates for degrees at Wellesley College. The commencement exercises will take place June 16, when the principal speaker will be James Forrestal, Secretary of the Navy.

Jean is majoring in economics and has included in her activities at Wellesley, membership in choir, Barnswallows, the college dramatic association, and Phi Sigma, the semi-academic society devoted to the study of modern poetry, of which she was president this year.

She received honors in her freshman year and was elected a Wellesley College Scholar for high scholastic achievement in her junior and senior years. She is a graduate of Kingswood School, Cranbrook.

Two Localities Speak Vows at Lovely Service Saturday

At one of the loveliest weddings of the season, which took place at Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday evening, Celia Irene Merrill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William L. Merrill of Will-O-Way in Birmingham, was united in marriage with Kenneth E. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Turner of Oakland boulevard.

The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. John H. Hurt of Ann Arbor before an altar lighted by tall tapers and mixed with floral decorations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was robed in a gown of candellier satin, which was fashioned with draped sleeves from which a stole fell the length of long satin train.

Her full length tulle veil had been worn by her sister and was fastened to a pearl medallion worn by the bride's mother at her wedding.

Lutheran Mission Society to Hear Guest Speaker

The regular monthly meeting of the Redeemer Lutheran Ladies Missionary Society will be held this evening at 8 p.m. in the Church Lounge.

After a business meeting the society will be host to the visiting Rev. Henry Klenke, who will be the guest speaker.

Rev. Klenke has been a missionary to Sao Paulo, Brazil, for the past 15 years.

Hostesses for the mission society who are making arrangements for the affair are Mrs. G. Anderson, Mrs. Harry Anderson, Mrs. Howard Ansteth, Mrs. Thomas Neal, Mrs. Richard Oberschulte and Mrs. Theodore Wuggegar.
