Dinner-Dance Given Last Saturday by City's Younger Set

Sixty members of Mrs. Basil E. Brown's Saturday evening dancing class enjoyed a gala evening last week at a dinner-dance held at the Community House. The crowd was seated at long tables centered with white roses and green tapers, while tiny shamrock favors carried out the St. Patrick's day motif. After an hour of dancing, master ceremonies were introduced those on the program. Acts of magic were demonstrated by Richard Arrambide, assisted by Esther Marks, followed by two Chopin selections played by Marilyn Hunt. The floor show ended with Donald "Corky" Goldsmith playing a variety of acrobatic numbers.

Committees planning the affair were Tom Morgan and George Rockwell, dinner reservations, Francis Le Veque, John Burton and Grover Farnsworth, decorations, and Bill Atkins and Mary Hopkins, entertainment. New members of the group introduced by Bill at the party were Arthur Fairbanks, Charles Lutz, combe, Brandt Cramer, Frederick Pfeiffer and Gordon Shira.

May 5 Is Date of School Election on Extra 5-Mill Levy

A special school election to decide whether the Birmingham Board of Education will be allowed another two-and-a-half mill, in addition to the present two-and-a-half mill levy for school operating expenses, will be held May 5, it was announced this week by Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of Birmingham schools.

In advance of the election, the Birmingham Board of Education will hold a series of public meetings in different schools, explaining why it is necessary to vote in the additional funds. Each board member and Dr. Ireland will appear on the different platforms on the following nights: 7:30 p.m., April 15; 7:30 p.m., April 17; 7:30 p.m., April 22; 7:30 p.m., April 24; 7:30 p.m., April 26.

New Architect Firm Established in City

New to Birmingham's professional field is the firm of Hughes and Denyes, Architects, although the firm partners have worked in this area for several years. James B. Hughes and Harry M. Denyes, Jr. are the two partners who will do institutional, commercial and residential architectural work from their new offices at 187 So. Woodward. Hughes, a Carnegie Tech graduate with an architecture degree from the University of Michigan, worked with firms in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and recently with Albert Kahn, Inc., in Detroit, and Swanson, Swanson & Sarrin, Bloomfield Hills.

Denyes has attended the University of Michigan, Illinois Institute of Technology, Northwestern University and the Cranbrook Art Academy. He has worked with R. F. Swanson in Bloomfield Hills, Grifels and Vallet in Detroit, and Swanson, Swanson & Sarrin, Bloomfield Hills. Both men are members of the American Institute of Architecture and the Michigan Society of Architects. Denyes is also a member of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters.

Tanked up

Birmingham will purchase another 8,000 gallons of gasoline from the Standard Oil Company at a price of 8.85 cents per gallon, it was decided Monday night by city commissioners. Standard was low bidder.

People of the U. S. took more than 40,000,000 lbs. of pills and powders last year.

Restaurant Opens

To open officially Saturday, March 15, is the new restaurant, the Bardselles, at 267 N. Woodward below the 14 Mile road. Owner John Nabehedian, says it will specialize in Armenian dishes, particularly Shah-Kebab, which consists of filets of prime young lamb, marinated in wine, seasoned and broiled.

Nabehedian has been in the printing business. Highland Park for the past 20 years, but is "retiring" into the restaurant business.

Hearing Set on Tree

Hearing date on the removal of a silver maple tree in the parkway in front of the residence of Robert M. Halstead, 1098 Fairfax, was set for March 24 by city commissioners, Monday night.
