

Many Localities Enter Exhibits in Flower Show

Birmingham flower lovers have added their bit to this year's magnificent flower show which is to be held March 15 through March 20 at the Detroit Convention Hall. When the show opens on Saturday, localities will see displays from in a Dutch setting arranged by Mrs. Lyman Craig and Mrs. Alfred La Belle, as well as an arrangement of the snack bar by Josephine Collins.

On Monday, when the arrangements change, the work of Mrs. Abell Murray, Jr. on a radio-tele-visual set will be displayed. In contrast to this, there will be an exhibit of a Czechoslovakian dining room with the dining table and

Cranbrook Exhibit

When the Wednesday exhibit begins, a fruit and vegetable arrangement by Mrs. Hirschaw will be on display, as will a cigarette container, originated by Mrs. Lyman Craig, Jr.

Finally for the Friday and Saturday exhibits, two Birmingham women, Mrs. Louis Kahn and Mrs. Donald James, will present an all-American living room, done in red, white and blue.

Another local aspect in the show is the Cranbrook Institute's exhibit. Attracting birds to the home garden will be the theme of the exhibit. Composed of a winter scene, it will show birds attracted by a feeding shelf, and illustrate birds using appropriate bird and nesting shelves.

Engaged

Birmingham is linked with South Bend, Ind., this week in the romantic news as Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Stover of that city announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Esther, to Robert W. Mallory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis B. Mallory of Elm street.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Kalamazoo College, and her fiancé is remaining in his studies there after serving 30 months with the Army Air Corps.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Much Scout News Highlights Girl Scout Week Here

With Girl Scout week in full swing all over the country, local girl scouts have been busily about with many and varied activities.

Troop No. 9 at Walnut Lake held their Court of Awards recently at a meeting attended by the troop founders, Miss Norma May Nolan, Mrs. Marjorie Bingham and Mrs. N. Schwarz, who were each presented with a sash by the girls.

Honors and Badges Awarded

Taking the highest honors of her troop was Barbara Wilson, who received the first class pin, the swimmer, life saver, winter sport, cook and troop dramatics badges and a five-year membership pin. Patricia Kemp received the cook badge and the design badge, while Barbara Thorne received four honors, the design badge, the clothing badge, the cook badge and the troop dramatics badge.

Betty Bretz was awarded both the second class badge and the troop dramatics badge, and Sharon Moore received the second class, the troop dramatics and the hostess badges.

Mary Ellen Given, Joyce Lee Noonan, Gloria Leveque, Carol Fisher and Nancy Boston all received the second class badge.

Mrs. Bingham was the guest speaker and gave a talk on the "Aims and Ideals of Scouting." The ceremony closed with the retiring of the flags and the Friendship Circle Wail.

Scouts Have Active Year

A review of scout activities of Troop No. 17 is announced by the scouts of the seventh and eighth grades at Holy Name school. The group used the first part of this year to complete classes for proficiency badges in home nursing, stardrifter, basketry and hostess work.

All class work has been very successful and three girls have become first class scouts and also earned their cooking bar. These are Georgine Skiffington, Jo Ann Shokat and Kaye Rossmann. Several other girls will be able to complete work for these honors in the near future.

Among other activities of this troop was the Christmas party at the Alumnae House, and a mixed dancing party celebrating Valentine's Day. Workers on this dance committee were Mary Jo Strenger, Juliane Kelley, Catherine Skelley, Sheila McGinnis, Georgia Skiffington, Florence Wilkins, Carol Hindley and Betty Rossmann.

Have Seed Bank

At a "Juliette Low" meeting two girls were elected Juliette Low chairmen. These girls were Jo Ann Shokat and Carol Hindley. Plans for a bake sale and apron sale to raise money for the Juliette Low fund were made.

A "seed bank" was installed on the scout bulletin board in school to receive donations for seed packets for foreign countries.

The program plan for this semester is to discontinue class work on badges and have only individual work maintained, so that more time may be devoted to real fun and pleasure trips.

The Bloomfield Hills Troop No. 23, under the leadership of Mrs. R. G. Bower, is entertaining members at a birthday party in honor of the 35th birthday of scouting. Original skills by members of the troop will be performed and refreshments will be served.

Gay Centerpieces Highlight Garden Club Meeting

African violet plants brought by each member of the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association were used for centerpieces on the tables where Mrs. E. W. Brehm, hospitality chairman, and her committee seated members and guests of that organization at its March meeting held on Monday at the Community House.

Mrs. J. J. Reilly, Jr. and Mrs. J. R. Ackerman presided at the luncheon which was arranged by Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm.

At the meeting following the luncheon it was announced by the president, Mrs. Lewis Clark Dibble, that a committee headed by Mrs. Frank D. Webb had been formed to stimulate practical gardening by keeping the members up to date on horticultural news, and to provide opportunity for those who wish to observe at first-hand, methods and means of making gardens more successful.

Hear Geologist Talk

Mrs. Dibble also told members that as part of the international cooperation work of the National Farm and Garden Groups, the Birmingham Branch last week sent to the New Brethren Society in Maryland 40 pounds of seeds for distribution in Greece, Finland and Belgium. These seeds were done up in family size packets. Flower seeds were included in each packet.

Mrs. Helen Martin's talk on "A Geologist Looks at Conservation" brought out the importance of not depleting natural resources not replaceable, such as minerals and water. Forests and game should also be protected.

Mrs. Morris Smith was chairman for the luncheon, and Mrs. C. B. Stiffler was co-chairman. They were assisted by Mrs. L. Sauer, Mrs. Stanley R. Saunders, Mrs. Ralph H. Scheel, Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm, Mrs. Marian Smiley and Mrs. W. H. Stephens. Mrs. Fred R. Seghers is the general social chairman.

Reorganized Gray Ladies to Meet Next Tuesday

The first meeting of the recently reorganized Gray Ladies, which were brought together again to serve at the Dearborn Hospital, will meet next Tuesday, March 18, at 10:00 o'clock at the Community House.

Mrs. Ruth Gantt, field director of the Red Cross, will instruct the group and an effort is being made to contact not only those who served at St. Joseph and other nearby hospitals during the war, but any women who have done Gray Lady work, either here or elsewhere.

Both the northern and southern district of Oakland county have been going to the Dearborn Hospital for a while, and Mrs. M. Brook, and Mrs. Steele Sellers, who have done most of the organizing in a campaign for another group from Birmingham, expressed a desire to have as many as possible attend the Tuesday meeting.
