Jean Kraus

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Kraus of Shirley drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Elizabeth, to Berton O. Blodgett, son of Mrs. Emma L. Blodgett of Bloomfield Hills.

The bride-elect attended Stevens College at Columbia, Mo., while her fiancé is now attending the Detroit School of Applied Sciences.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Easter bunnies, paper eggs, orcas and tickets were thrown into the mental thinking bag of Club 1930 and out popped the Easter Serenade, a semi-formal dance, to be staged April fifth in the hall room of the Community House.

Peg Viet was named general chairman with Ginny Walsh and Jim Aucterlonie taking over the refreshments. Tom Williams was given the task of decorating and named Betty King, Marilyn McIntyre, Ida Martin, Louis Corsi, Dorothy Jackson and Jo Anne Westery as members of his committee.

Tom has extended an invitation to anyone of an ambitious nature to come over and help on the afternoon of the fifth. Norm Flemington procured Wally Trust and his orchestra to do the musical honors.

The publicity department is being handled by Carl Thomas and Ormand Sherwood, who have announced the general headquarters for tickets at Leonard's.

Some of the other events on the agenda include a square dance,

Carol J. Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Grant, 272 Oakland, and Mary Elizabeth Schooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas Schooley, 1028 Riverock, both sophomores at Albion College, will sing also an soprano, respectively, in the chorus of the "Requiem," Johannes Brahms famous oratorio, which will be presented at the Albion Methodist Church on March 23, in memory of the sixty-one former students of the college who lost their lives in the two World Wars.

Denise Marie Otis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hawley Otis, 32 Barbours Terrace, Bloomfield Hills, has been named in group two of the Dean's academic list at Radcliffe College. Group two represents a consistently high scholastic rating.

Denise, who is a regional scholar from Michigan, is a sophomore at Radcliffe and a graduate of Kingswood School. She is an active member of the Radcliffe fencing team, and the choral society which, together with the Harvard University Glee Club, appears annually with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Richard Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Dunn of Bates street, was elected to the office of representative of Vandevook Hall by the men of Western Michigan College who live at the dormitory. He will serve for the present semester.

Harold Jackson Lauer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lauer, 514 Puritan road, has been named on the dean's list of high honor students in the college of liberal arts at the University of Arizona.

Lynn Lyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lyle of E. Maple, was elected to the office of representative of Vandevook Hall by the men of Western Michigan College who live at the dormitory. He will serve for the present semester.

which seems to be a favorite on the entertainment list, scheduled for next Thursday with Clarence Davey calling and teaching.

Tuesday we saw many members assembled and disassembled on the roller rink floor out Clawson way. March program chairman, has also planned a theatre party for March 25th. The play will be announced later with tickets available through the program committee.

What is Club 1930? We hear that question quite often and want those of you who are curious to know we are young folks hovering between the ages of 19 and 30. That gave us the idea for our name. We meet bi-weekly in the ranch room of the Community House. Tuesday is a planned night with Thursday a do-as-you-want nite.

Local Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Help Support French Girl

The young lady pictured below is a small, 10-year-old French girl, Francoise Brault, of Les Aydes (Loiret) France, who is being aided in her struggle to grow up as a normal youngster in a was adopted at the organization's national convention last year when it was voted to use $4,000 remaining in the Physio-Therapy Scholarship fund, Pi Phi war project, for this purpose.

The funds are administered by the Save the Children Federation, New York. Care of forty-three European children by the organization will be extended for an entire year. Individual gifts and correspondence sent by the local alumnae clubs and active chapters are delivered personally by Save the Children trucks.

Local club members plan to send several boxes to Francoise filled with contributions from the membership. In addition lists of articles needed by the child and approved for shipping by the Federation have been supplied each member in the event that they wish to send individual gifts.

Mrs. John Shiner is president of the local Phi Beta Phi chapter.

devised country by members of the local Pi Beta Phi alumnae club.

Although she was not orphaned by the war, Francoise is one of three children, the others in her family being four and fifteen years of age. Her father, a railway employee, has a very small income.

The club, along with 15 other alumnae clubs of the Delta province, has adopted the dark-haired, dark-eyed little girl and promised to send her food, clothing, etc.

A total of forty-three such children are being sponsored by Pi Beta Phi nationally. The project seniors all over the country. Participants have four assignments and are eliminated as the contest proceeds until there are two top winners, who each receive a year's training in Paris, and four girls, who have their training in New York. Art is Lynn's major, and her last assignment for the contest was recently completed. This included a complete layout, advertisement designs and all, for an issue of Vogue.

Nancy Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanders of Epling Lane, is flying to Bermuda March 28 with a gang of her Bradford College friends. She and her cronies plan to dig right down in the sand until their return to their studies on April 8.

Mary Joy Wangberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ingwald Wangberg of Pierce street, has received the Sigma degree in Western Michigan College chapter of Sigma Tau Chi, national fraternity in business education, election to which is made upon the basis of academic attainment.

David Wangberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ingwald Wangberg of Pierce street, has been nominated as a presidential candidate of the Gresham class at Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant. Nominees were chosen on the basis of petitions signed by 25 eligible voters. However, the academic standing of each candidate was checked before he was named as potential class leader.

Another son of the Wangbergs, Harold G., who is attending the University of California at Berkeley, has recently become affiliated with Delta Phi Epsilon, National Foreign Service Fraternity. He will graduate from the University in June after completing the course in export and import trade.

Donald Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Davies of Kennesaw road, has been pledged to Sigma Nu at the University of Michigan.

Of interest to local Kappa Kappa Gamma and Delta Tau Delta will be the news from Hilldale College that the two groups maintained the highest scholastic averages of any groups on campus at Hilldale College. The Kappas came through with a point average of 1.906, while the Tau Deltas topped all campus groups of over fifteen members with an average of 1.906.

Along with this news came word that Barbara Boughner, 632 Oakland Avenue, is one of ten students at the college to maintain an all-A record during the semester just completed.
