

Holy Name PTA to Hear Lecturer

Sister Mary, L. H. M., author, lecturer and head of the sociology department at Marygrove College, will speak on "Adolescent Problems" to Holy Name PTA, Wednesday, Mar. 19, at 2:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Holy Name parents and members of the parish with their friends are invited to attend. Sister Mary, who edits a column, "How's Your Home," in the Michigan Catholic, has invited her audience to send in questions which she will cover in her discussion. A nursery will be conducted in the Alumni House for the convenience of those attending.

Latbrup Townsite News
By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Sun Worshipers: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stock of Quentin drive and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fisher of 2145 1/2th ave. are the townsite and now of Lakeland, Mich., are together in Port Lauenburg, Fla. The Stocks went south four weeks ago and are expected home next week. Mrs. John Freese and her mother, Mrs. Laura Wilkins are at home after a vacation in Key West. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Dorman returned from their Florida vacation last week.

Mrs. Ruth Waddell and daughter, Esther, are in Chicago to welcome home Bill Waddell who will receive his discharge papers from the Army after several months spent in the Aleutians. Father will leave for Tokyo soon after the reunion. She is being sent there by the firm for which she works and will be away at least two years.

Mrs. D. A. Wayne, mother of Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, spent a few days with her son-in-law and daughter before going back home to Midland. She had been in New York City the past few weeks.

Mrs. Wilfred Thompson, Mrs. Arthur Mitchell and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland visited Mrs. Emil Frederick of Monroe last Friday. Mrs. Frederick was formerly of the townsite.

Mrs. Carl Bush of Rackham boulevard will be hostess to the members at a bridge luncheon March 20. The group includes Mrs. R. E. Elias, Mrs. Lee R. Baker, Mrs. Robert Farley, Mrs. Ruth Waddell, Mrs. Edwin Blake, Mrs. Kenneth Crow and Mrs. John Diederich.

Contemporary Music Program at Christ Church

A special program has been selected for next Sunday's vespers service at Christ Church Cranbrook at 4:30 p. m., consisting of music from the works of contemporary composers.

There is very little similarity in the music of Hindemith, Stravinsky, Barber and Bernstein, to be presented, yet each one's work is creative and in his own style. Dupre is probably the outstanding organ teacher, composer and performer of the present time.

Soloists for the program will be Lois Chapman, soprano; Jean Hohnmeyer, Patsy Welden, Janet Fossenkemper and Axel Magnusson, violins; Mildred Thomas, viola; Flora Wager, cello; William Casey, flute, and E. W. Hill, organ.

On the program will be "Coraggio et Litanie" by Dupre; "Lamentation (Finale 'Jeremian Symphony)" for soprano, by Bernstein; Samuel Barber's "Adagio for Strings" (Final Hindemith); "Echo for flute and Organ"; an

People's Column

To the Editor: I would like to compliment the Birmingham Police Department on their alertness. Last Saturday they caught a shoplifter who was operating in our business district.

After stealing a coat and blouse from our store, she made a few other stops around town. Sgt. Timm got wind of her and immediately made the arrest.

I would like to thank Chief Hackett, Bill Green and Sgt. Timm for the fine job they did in catching this shoplifter and getting a confession.
