The spiritual universe, including individual man, is a compound idea, reflecting the divine substance of Spirit."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Mystery of the Rocking Chair

Ma Hopkins has a favorite rocking chair that's worn and shabby, with a noisy creak. Pa Hopkins has listened to that squeak for thirty years... and he decided to do something about it. So he bought a new rocker, and hid the other in the barn.

Ma allowed as how grateful she was... but when Pa Hopkins had one afternoon, he heard a familiar sound that led him to the barn. There was Ma rocking happily in her old chair—squeak... squeak. No need to tell you how Pa felt.

Quick as a wink he hid the new rocker and then brought Ma's old chair back to the house. Now when he hears that squeak, he looks at the yellow glass of beer he's drinking and says to himself: "She's just as entitled to her small pleasures as I am."

From where I sit, that's one of the reasons the Hopkinses are the happiest, oldest-married, peace-loving folks in our town.
