Alaska Travelogue To be Presented Next Wednesday

A worldwide traveler, Harris B. Carr, will present a travelogue of color movies on Alaska to members of the Bloomfield Village Parents club next Wednesday evening.

During the past several years Carr has made various trips to Europe, Guatemala, Alaska, Mexico and throughout the United States. Each time he has brought back unique movies in color. On a recent trip to Alaska he traveled 1400 miles in obtaining pictures and these will be on the evening's program.

A brief business meeting will precede the program and serving of refreshments will conclude the evening's entertainment.

Detroit, Christ Church Choirs to Sing Together

Bach's immortal "St. Matthew's Passion," presented by the combined choirs of the First Congregational Church of Detroit and of Christ Church Cranbrook, will highlight the series of afternoon services at Christ Church, next Sunday, March 23, at 4:30 p. m. This is recognized one of the great oratorios of time. Following traditional custom, it will be given on Passion Sunday this week.

Bach's conception of Christ's Passion included a picture of a suffering crowd divided into two parts calling and answering to each other as Christ was being led to the cross. This picture has been carried out musically by the two choruses. They will be under the direction of Robert Bates, director of the Congregational Church choir. Soloists for the oratorio will be Lois Chapman, Marion Jewell, Mildred Williams, William Simpson, Syver Thingstad, Fred Nicholson and Dean Yokum.

Annual Meeting at High School Today

The annual spring tea of the Baldwin High School PTA will be given at the high school today at 3 p. m.

Election of officers will be held before the program which consists of piano numbers by Baldwin students and a review of "Happy is the Land" by Mrs. Ralph Beebe.

Home-Cooked Meal At Poppleton School

At Poppleton School tomorrow night a home-cooked meal will be served cafeteria style beginning at 5:30 p. m. Parents of children attending the school are urged to bring family, friends and relatives to the affair, which is sponsored to raise funds for the annual eighth grade banquet given each year for the graduating students.

Ladies Society of Methodist Church To Meet Wednesday

The various groups of the Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church will meet for luncheon and business next Wednesday at 1:15 p. m.

Mrs. Harry Bayley, 887 E. Maple, will entertain the Sarah Alton group at her home, with Mrs. John Martz in charge of the luncheon. Robert Surridge, 986 Glenhurst, will be hostess to the Hattie Evans group with Mrs. Milton Bell assisting.

The Mary Utter group will meet at the home of Mrs. Karl Branson, 845 Greenwood, with Mrs. Blythe Jones as chairman of the luncheon, while the Kate Wagner group will be the guests of Mrs. George Mack, 1728 Yorkshire, where Mrs. Fred Polberg will be in charge of the luncheon. Mrs. F. J. Watkins, 836 Knox, will entertain the Susanna Wesley group with Mrs. Glen Waggoner in charge of luncheon arrangements.

'Y' Group to Attend Planning Session

Dot Perkins and Madeline Robinson will represent young Detroit women's groups at a conference planning session to be held in the Student Union Building of Michigan State University March 23.

Howard Littleton and Roger Reynolds are tentative delegates from the young men's section. This group will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Kirbert. Conference planning will deal with recreation and young adult problems as related to young adults. Bruce Tallman, State YMCA program secretary, is the speaker for the conference and representative groups are expected from all parts of Michigan for this one-day session.

Season Closes for Co-ed 'Y' Activities

Ed Kirbert local YMCA secretary, has announced that the mixed swimming at the Barnum School and the ladies basketball group at Pierce would terminate their activities for this season with final sessions this week. More than 36 different people have enjoyed swimming under the tutelage of Jay Meyers of the Baldwin faculty, who has instructed the group for the past 10 weeks.

Barbara Renault and Joan Roy are planning a social get-together for the ladies basketball group on Thursday, March 27. The men are invited and plans will be made for softball play this summer, outings, trips and get-togethers.

Adams School Cubs Plan Railway Excursion Saturday

An excursion trip on the Grand Trunk railroad in the train in store for Cub Pack B-8 of Adams this Saturday, and the man who will supervise is Mr. T. Hollister Mable, Pack Dad of the troop.

A special car will be hooked on the regular 2:04 commuter train and the Cubs and Dads must be at the Birmingham depot ahead of time. In Detroit Cubs will inspect a Pullman car to see how the beds are made up, go through a diner and its galley, climb into the cab of a train, see a round-table work and inspect the carriages that carry trains across the river.

The excursion group will return by special car attached to the 12:30 train from Detroit, getting back to Birmingham at 1:55 p. m. p. m.

Adams PTA Sponsors Fifth Square Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Pomeroy will be hostess for the fifth square dance of this season, sponsored by the Adams School PTA, which will be held Saturday evening in the school gymnasium at 9:00 p. m. Assisting the Pomeroy on the decorations and refreshments will be Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spangenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Hubert.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brennan of Detroit will call the tunes to the music of Williams' orchestra. The Brennans have announced that the 3:30 p. m. instruction class will be held for direction in advanced square dancing technique.

Mrs. Herkimer to be Hostess on March 26

Mrs. Steven H. Herkimer, 1291 Bird street, will be hostess at a dessert luncheon and card party of the VFW next Wednesday at 1:00 p. m. Assisting her as hostesses will be Mrs. Carolyn Coral and Mrs. Gertrude Kelling.

The affair is given to raise money for the building fund of the VFW Post No. 2645 here in Birmingham.
