RANCH ROOM ROUNDUP

By Marion Monroy
The big open house at the Community House last Thursday night had the Ranch Room popping! Some of the kids that were standing in line for cake, cookies and ginger ale were Peggy McPhail, Donna Abbott, Barb Spruce, Joan Toothacker, Ted Harper, George Ehlert, Dick Kimball, Richard Blasius, Robert Brown, Betty Lou Ackerman, Marge Norman and many others.

All the games were in full swing, while the parents came in and out to watch the kids.

The Topsy-Turvy Dance Saturday night, with Don Maxwell's Band, had a big turnout.

Some of the couples have lots of fun were Pete Whitelaw, Giner Hamhart, Rusty Davies, Carolyn Metzger, Bob Littleton, Peg Gould, Dave Ballentine, Sis Deaschner, Walt Bogie, Betty Whitelaw, Clay Joyce, Judy Olsen, Ted Herist, Jo Olson, Warren Rouse, Phyllis Brenker, Hank Price, Sally Roseberry and lots more.

EML School Officials Meet to Decide Athletic Policies for Coming Year

By Dick Adams
The spring meeting of the Eastern Michigan League board was held last Wednesday evening, May 7, at East Detroit high school.

The principals and athletic directors met separately to iron out their respective problems, after which M. J. Tomlinson, Port Huron principal, presided over a joint session of the two groups.

Arrangements for the league track meet topped the agenda of pending business for the policy makers. The elder session will be Hazel Park's quarter-mile oval to determine the league track champion. Preliminary events will commence at one o'clock while the finals will begin at approximately 3:30.

At Mt. Clemens Next Year
The participating schools will be Ferndale, Port Huron, Mt. Clemens, Hazel Park and Birmingham. East Detroit will not enter official competition in the league until next fall.

Tentative plans were laid for a gab fest, cakes and "moonlight serenade."

Sylvia Robbins, Tubby O'Brien, Pete Sanderson, John Eastford, Shirley Mainland and Mike Maloney went to see "The Man I Love" at the Birmingham theatre. From all reports, they found it definitely to their liking.

Saturday afternoon found Betty Tjandra, John Bone, Sis Daeschner and Dave Ballentine riding the trail via horseback, that is Joan Edwards and Bob Grindley unloaded a little energy by playing a snappy tennis game.

The same evening the girls took their fellas in tow and brought them to the topsy-turvy dance at the Community House.

Some we saw were Sally Roseberry, Hank Price, Jo Dasher, Johnny Larkins, Jo Flores, Deane Cramer, Janet Roosevelt, Johnny Anderson, Judy Olson, Clayton Joyce, Carol Peterson and Don McConk.

As yet here are some more: Judy Dickinson, Dick Murray, Jeanne Kiefer, Rolly Olin, Mary Grosvener, Don Ritter, Nan Chapel, Dick Adams, Margie Dalton, Dick Adams, George H. Hadley, Phil Allen, Marge Horne, Phil Shalberg, Harry Powers, Stan Schuler, Kerry Kirk, Jack Goodwin, Jojo Spike, Norm Goddard, Boots Parks and Tom Bromson.

Representing the alums were Mary Taylor, Jack Steelman, Mary Jane Bell, Harry Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Pierce (the former Barb Flues).

Gloria Davison, Harold Kelley, Barb Fox, Tom Hauman, and more, laughed at and danced to the antics of Dick Jergens and his band out of the Wall Lake.

Seems there was a hayride, too, but Annie got lost along the way and didn't make it.

Fifteen-love was the score when we interrupted a tennis game between Ralph Dunbar and Pete Hartsuff. Also playing were Pat Shiner, Jack Adams, Jackie Caryl and Don Degen.

That's all, folks.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

H'ysn, gang!
Friday night saw Nancy Fisher, Doc Plant, Nancy Holmes, Ed Beatty, Janice Thomas, Harry Hughes, Joy Stark and Jim McCull laughing and screaming as they caused many a traffic jam on the lodge-in cars at the Carnival. Ah, but then there are those who love high places, so they try the ferris wheel as did Nancy Fisher, Joan Toothacker, Carolyn Metzger and Rusty Davies.

Later Nancy Holmes took some of the gang back to her house
