Schedule Saint James Pet Parade For May 24th

Gaily colored decorations will transform the St. James parking lot, located across from Baldwin High School, into a real country fair ground for the annual St. James Fair and Pet Parade which will be held May 24.

Under the direction of Mrs. Zella Dricker, plans are rapidly developing, and all guilds of the church are cooperating, each sending one member to serve on her committee.

Besides the main event of the affair, the pet parade, there will be pony rides, jeep rides, movies, balloons, candy, fish pond, hot dogs, cake and coffee, home baked goods, hand-made aprons, garden plants, and a buffet supper at the Parish House to finish up the day.

Children from all over town are busy bathing, brushing and getting their pets into top-notch condition for the big pet parade, which will begin at 1:30 p. m. sharp from the Church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stroeter are in charge of the parade with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Tabor and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Trout as their assistants. The high school band, under the direction of A. W. Berndt, will lead the parade. There will be prizes and a surprise for every one participating.

Foreman of the fair will be the annual plant sale sponsored by St. Elizabeth's guild with Mrs. John Brennan in charge. The sale of plants begins May 20 and will continue through May 24.
