

Local Dentists Plan To Attend County Meeting Tomorrow

A number of Birmingham dentists and many from the surrounding cities in Oakland County will meet tomorrow at the Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills, for a one-day educational course of lectures on new advances in dentistry and work connected with it.

The meet, sponsored by the Oakland County District Dental Society, will start at 2 p. m. and will include noted Michigan dental leaders. The lecturers were obtained by the Michigan State Dental Society and the Bureau of Public Health Dentistry of the Michigan Department of Health.

Recreation

"Other highlights contemplated by the Recreation Commission so far are the planning of supervised and well equipped play centers at the Adams, Barnum, Pierce, Quanton and Torrey play areas," Whitney said in explaining the program.

"It is expected that activities started out at these centers will branch out to include the Community House, Baldwin High, the public library, Barnum school and Springdale Park."

A completely furnished work shop will be made available at Barnum for those who wish to specialize in advanced handicraft activities.

Special Sport Instruction This year the Barnum play center will be organized as headquarters for city playground tournaments and championships for children of school age.

"Provisions are also to be made for special classes in sport instruction if the need arises," Whitney said. "Activities offered would include any of the sports now offered in high school. Classes would be limited to children of the same age levels."

To round out the whole program, elementary and junior high baseball, track and swimming teams, along with individual craft work for the younger children, will be offered.

The recreation board for Birmingham is headed by Wm. Coit Allen, chairman; with Mrs. William H. Jackson as vice-chairman, Harold Gasser as acting secretary, and Roland Reese, City Manager Donald E. Gier's, Commissioner William Martin and Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, Superintendent of Birmingham Schools, as board members.

Bond Issue

Famous Sculptor to Open Home Saturday

Carl Milles, internationally known sculptor, shows Mrs. Allan Lutz a Grecian statue, which dates back to 400 B. C. The item is one of a collection of famous marbles which will be on display at the Save the Children Federation tea Saturday in his Bloomfield Hills home.

Carl Milles to Speak at Tea for Benefit of SCF

A discussion with King Gustav of Sweden last year is one of the chief reasons Carl Milles is opening his home and studio at Cranbrook for the Save the Children Federation benefit tea next Saturday afternoon.

During his tour of Sweden, Milles had noticed lines of people, in every town he visited, waiting to contribute funds to help the homeless and starving youngsters of Europe.

Later, in a conversation with the King, he learned that rich and poor alike were joining in the movement, which in Sweden had reached the proportions of drives in America by Community Chests and the Red Cross.

Makes Deep Impression Milles was profoundly impressed, and on his return became interested in the work of the Birmingham chapter of SCF.

At the tea Saturday he will throw open the rooms containing his world-famous collection of antique marbles, including the Barbarian group and statuary dating to 550 B. C.

Milles has recently been notified of his election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters. Formal ceremonies at which his name will be added to the ranks of art immortals will occur in New York next Sunday.

Besides her duties as overall director of plans for the tea at the Milles home, Mrs. Rudolf E. Esch, chairman of the local chapter of SCF, is handling ticket distribution.

Final Plans Completed Mrs. Walter Ross, who is in charge of table arrangements, held a meeting at her home yesterday afternoon to schedule final plans for the affair. Mrs. Ross' assistants are Mrs. Winton Kelly, Mrs. Allan Lutz, Mrs. Albert Riebling, Mrs. Frederick Sewin, Mrs. Philip Pretz, Mrs. Angus Melay, Mrs. Herbert Fischer, Mrs. F. Chalmers Smith and Mrs. Edward Mattieu.

Mrs. Fred Sanders, Mrs. Henry S. Booth, Mrs. Hugh White and Mrs. Neil C. McMath have been asked to preside at the tea table.

Because of the enthusiastic response to the announcement of the Milles tea, the committee is planning to serve from 2:30 to 3 and from 4 to 5. Mr. Milles will speak at 2:45 and again at 4:15.

Mrs. Esch said yesterday that reservations for the tea should be made immediately by calling at her home, 740 Fairfax road.

Hackett Represents B'ham at Annual Safety Conference

Birmingham is being represented at the 19th annual Michigan Safety Conference, which began in Detroit Tuesday and concludes today, by Chief of Police John P. Hackett. The conference is divided into five classifications of safety, including traffic law enforcement, industrial, public utility, transportation, school and college, engineering and planning, mayors' and city managers' safety programs and the women's division of home safety.

Chief Hackett is particularly interested in the law enforcement division which meets today. Because highway accidents all over the United States claim the largest fatality and injury toll of any of the classifications, it is expected that major attention will focus on this session.

While automobile fatalities in Michigan have shown a decline as per the number of miles traveled by autos, the total number of deaths has increased—a jump of almost 300 more fatalities in 1946 than in 1945.

Birmingham itself has been fortunate during the past year in having no traffic fatalities.
